Foreword

For the first time Washington High School had two foreign exchange students studying on campus. Annali Larmo, of ice-blue Finland, and Sherif Raafat, from the sun-danced land of the Sahara, each in his own way, gave students an insight on the customs, beliefs and attitudes of people half way around the world. But beyond this they moved us . . . . . .

to see ourselves
as others see us.

WHS was able to stop and take an account of itself; improving any weaknesses and standing proud in its achievements. As individuals we too took an inventory which caused us to lift our heads and take a bigger step in becoming better citizens.

Dedication: Carl Ulichny Builds Brain and Brawn

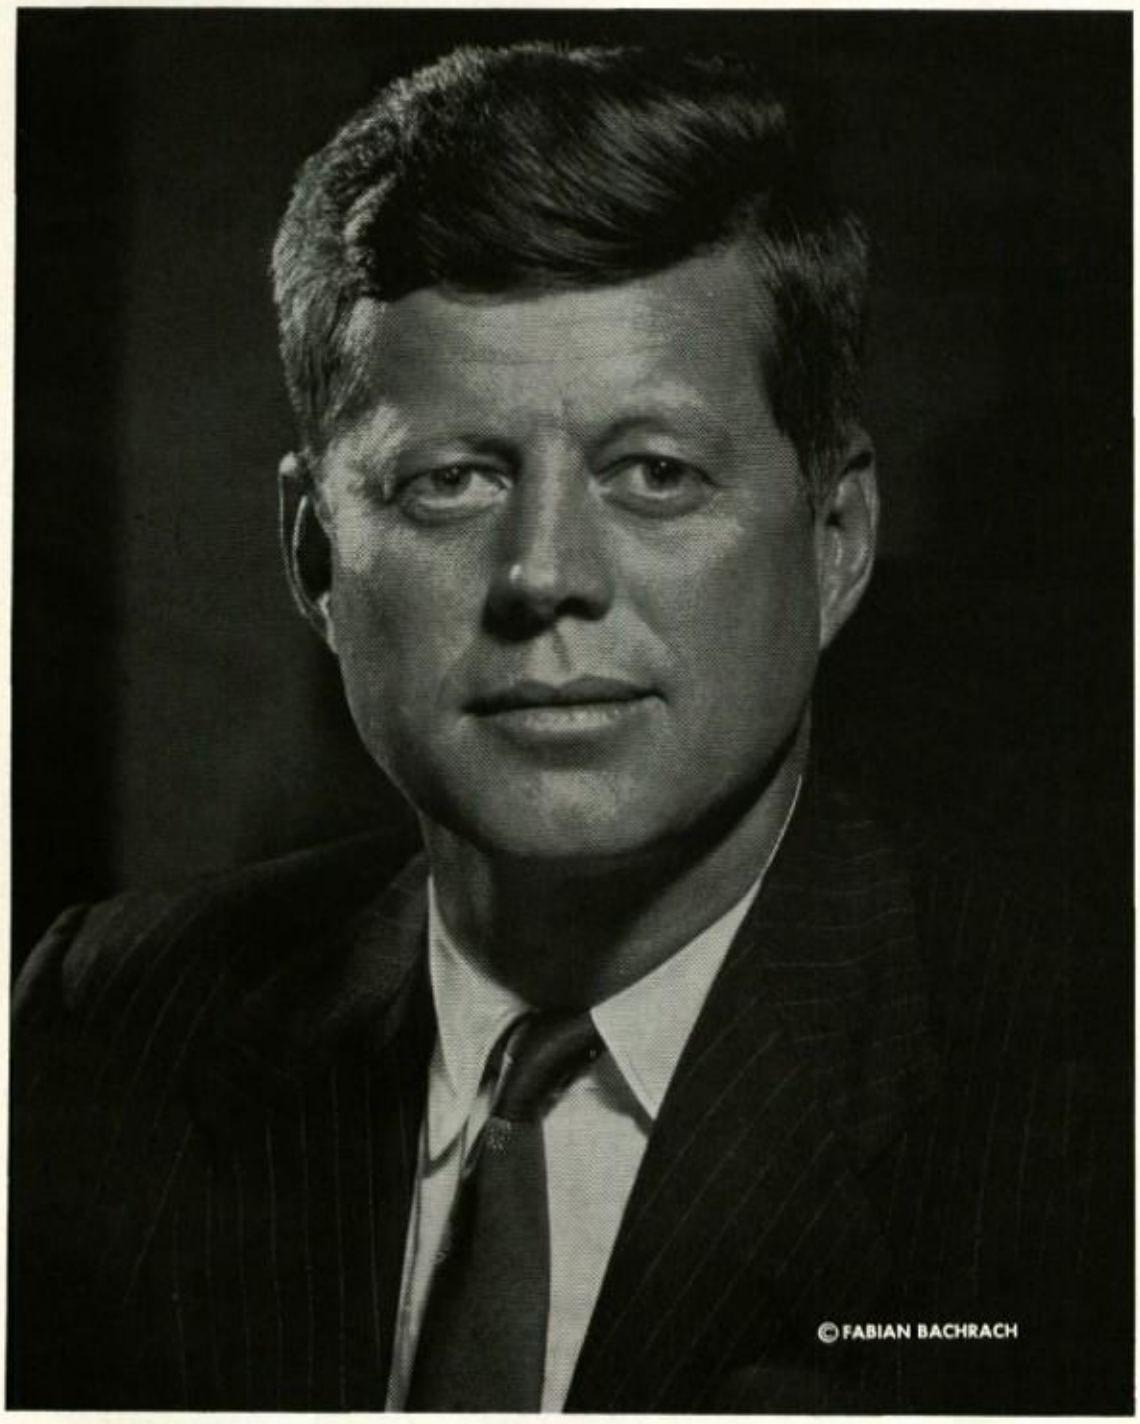
Building men out of boys through physical and mental achievement, Karl D. Ulichny has added greatly to the advancement of Washington High School and its citizens. We salute him not only as head football coach but as a teacher and a friend in whom all may confide.

In sincere gratitude the 1964 Panorama staff dedicates this yearbook to Coach Karl Ulichny.

Coach Ulichny advises senior Bruce Kenny on game strategy.

In Memoriam — John F. Kennedy

Radios broadcast the terrible news.



"Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country."

November 21 was wet and rainy, shoes were covered with mud and the walkways were crowded with students trying to keep out of the downpour.

The following day, Friday, November 22, started as a happy opposite. The air was crisp, but the sun was shining. Walkways were decorated with purple and white crepe-paper to remind everyone that the last home game of the football season was to be played. The first three periods of the day went quickly.

During fourth hour the news that threw Washington High School and the rest of the world into shock was heard. Principal William Berry's voice was heard over the public address system: "I am sorry to announce that President Kennedy and Governor Connally of Texas have just been shot while riding in a Dallas motorcade."

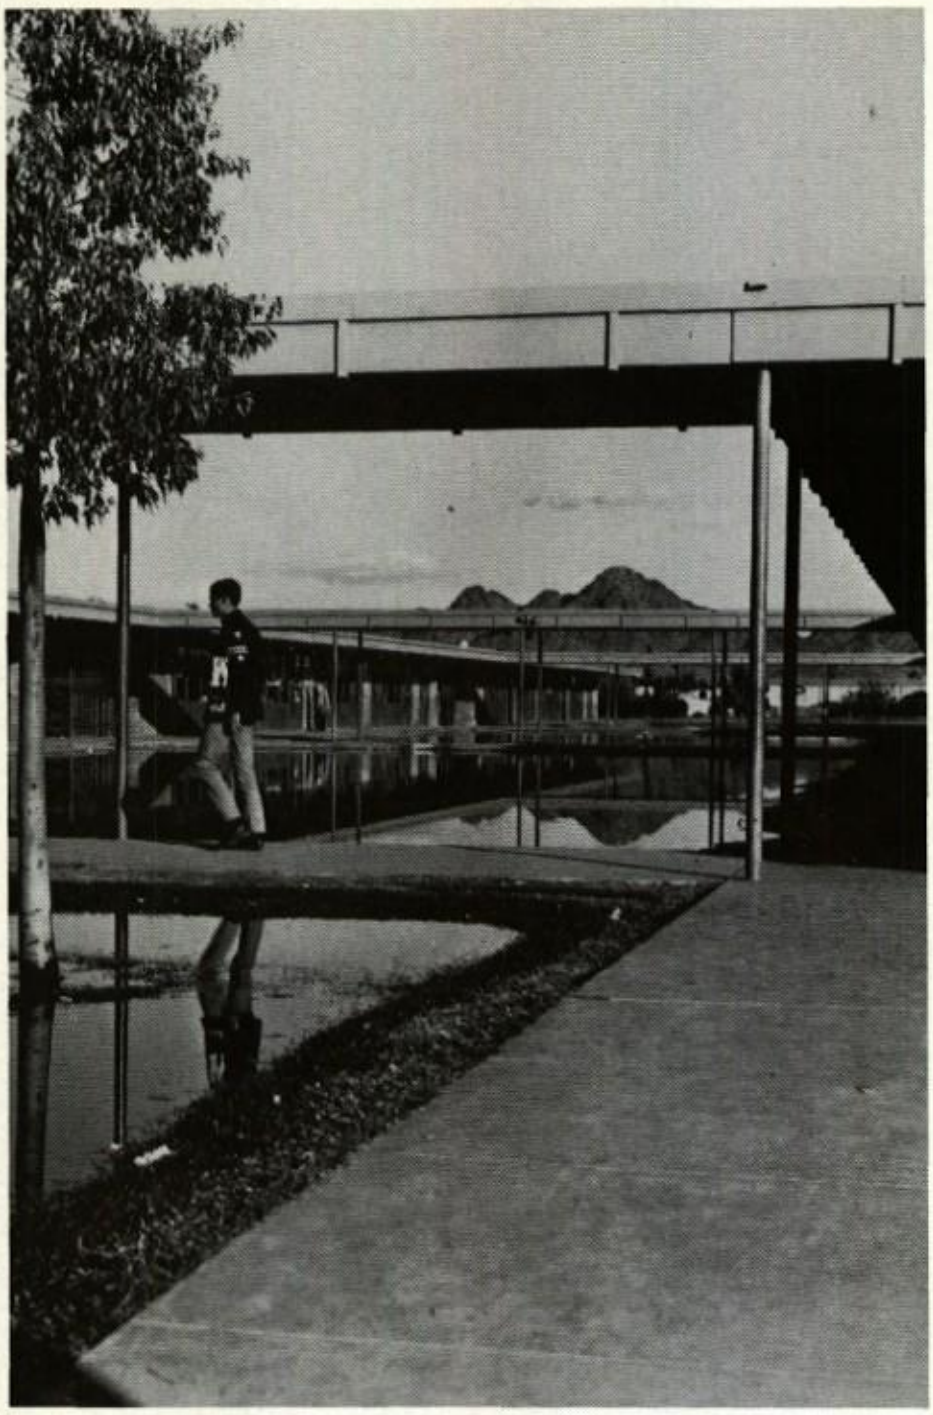
An awesome silence fell over the school. Some who were able to shake themselves free of the numbing shock began to pray; others cried; and still others shook their heads in disbelief.

By the end of second lunch, it was realized that President John F. Kennedy was dead. The remaining periods of the day were spent listening to available radios for the heart-rending details.

When the student body, faculty, and staff left the grounds, the sun had lost its glow and the blue sky seemed somehow very dark.

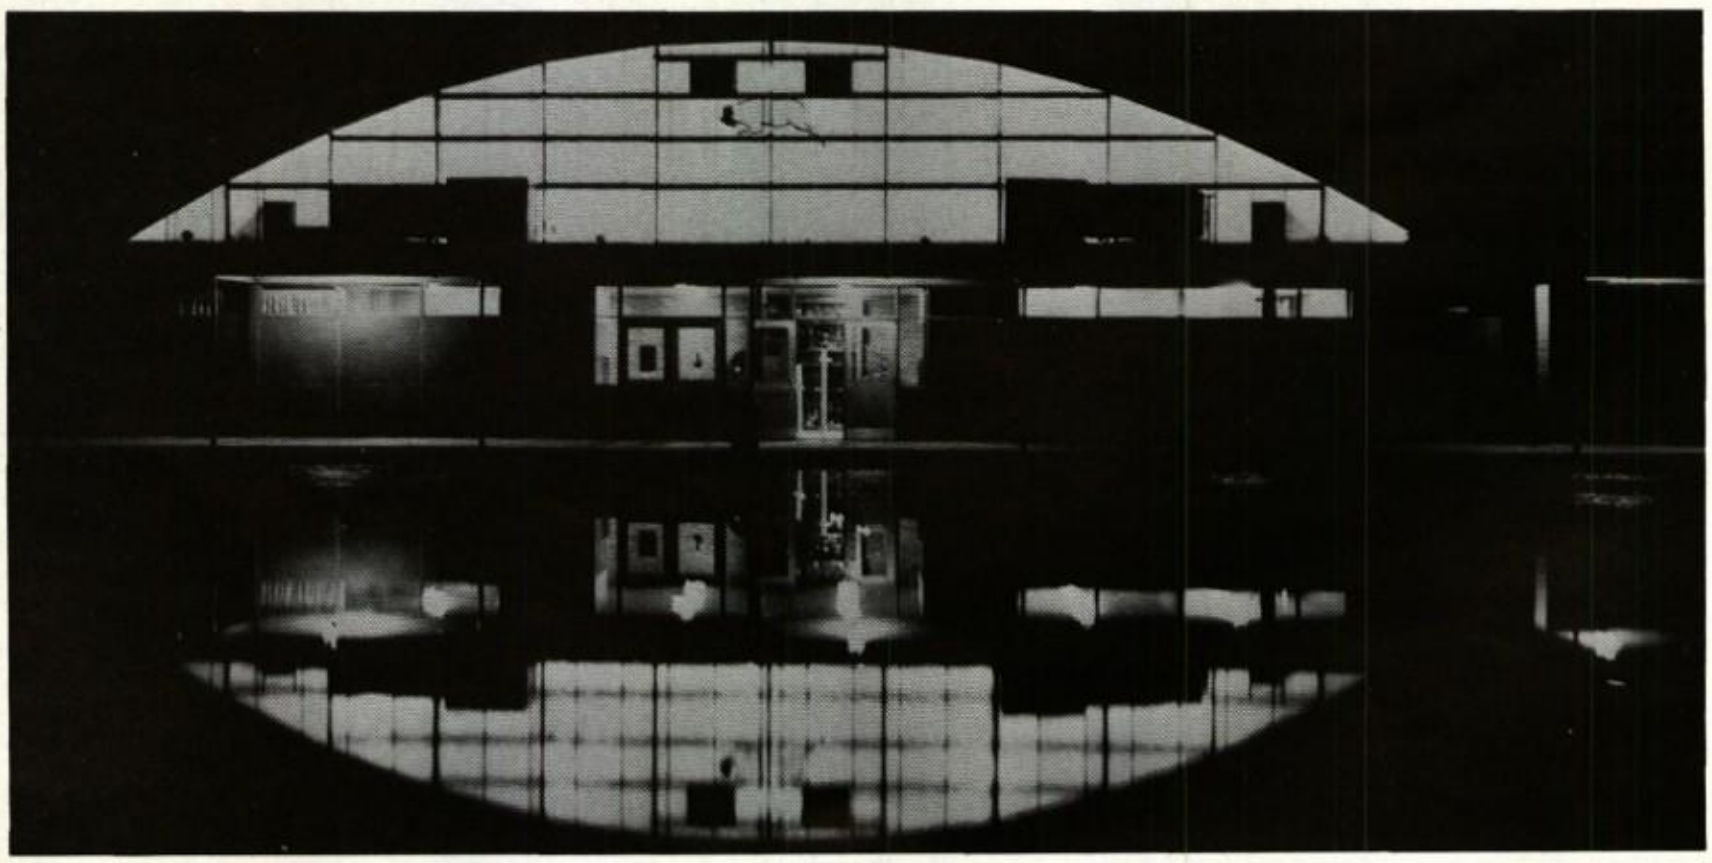
The President's death touched the students deeply; maybe because as young adults they were becoming more aware of the world outside their single self, or perhaps they could hear the words spoken by him in his address just two years and ten months before.

O Washington,



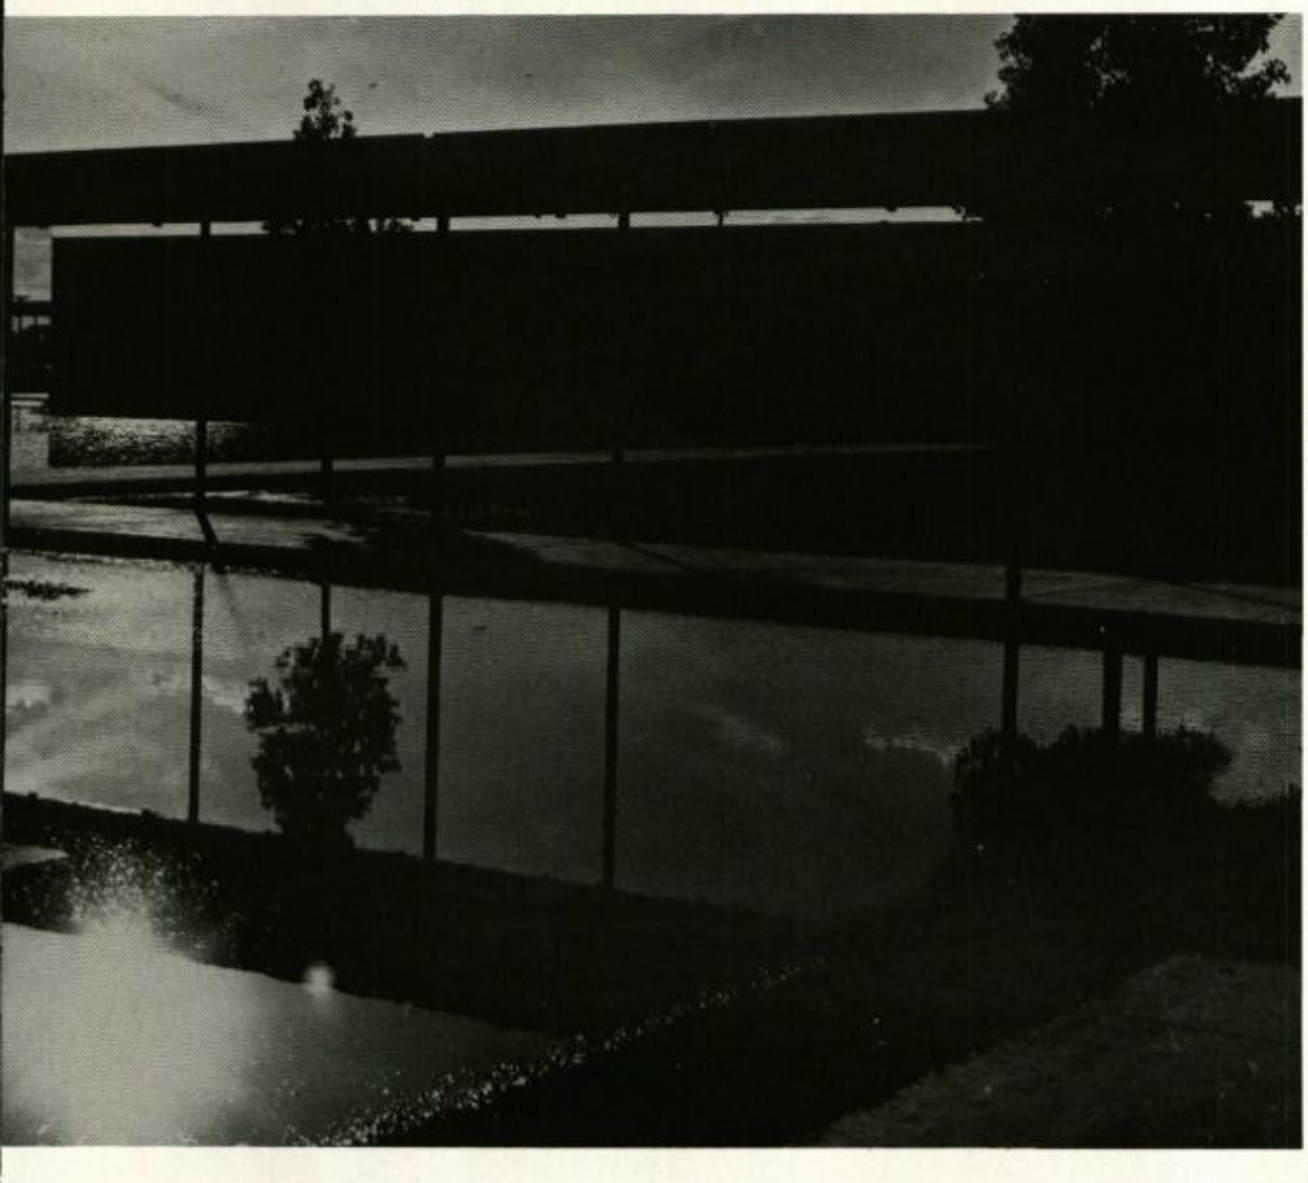
"We'll guard thy name . . . "

"We'll raise



" . . . and bring you honor, glory . . . "

We Sing Thy Praises.



your colors to the sky."

"As we pass by our hearts will praise you always . . . "

"Washington, our dear old high."

EXAM

Members of the Glendale Union High School District Board of Education are Mr. Arthur Sine, member; Mr. Don Sanderson, member; Mrs. Graydon B. Hall, president; Mr. John F. Long, clerk; and Dr. Joseph P. Voorhees, member.

Education Is Their Chief Concern

Members of the Glendale Union High School District Board of Education have developed the habit of thinking big because of the ever increasing enrollment in district schools. Within the last decade, three new high schools have been added to the district. These additions have necessitated the hiring of new teachers, the buying of additional land, and an immense amount of planning and predicting.

With the passage of the school bond in February, plans can now go ahead with the construction of a new school in Deer Valley and with additions and improvements to existing schools.

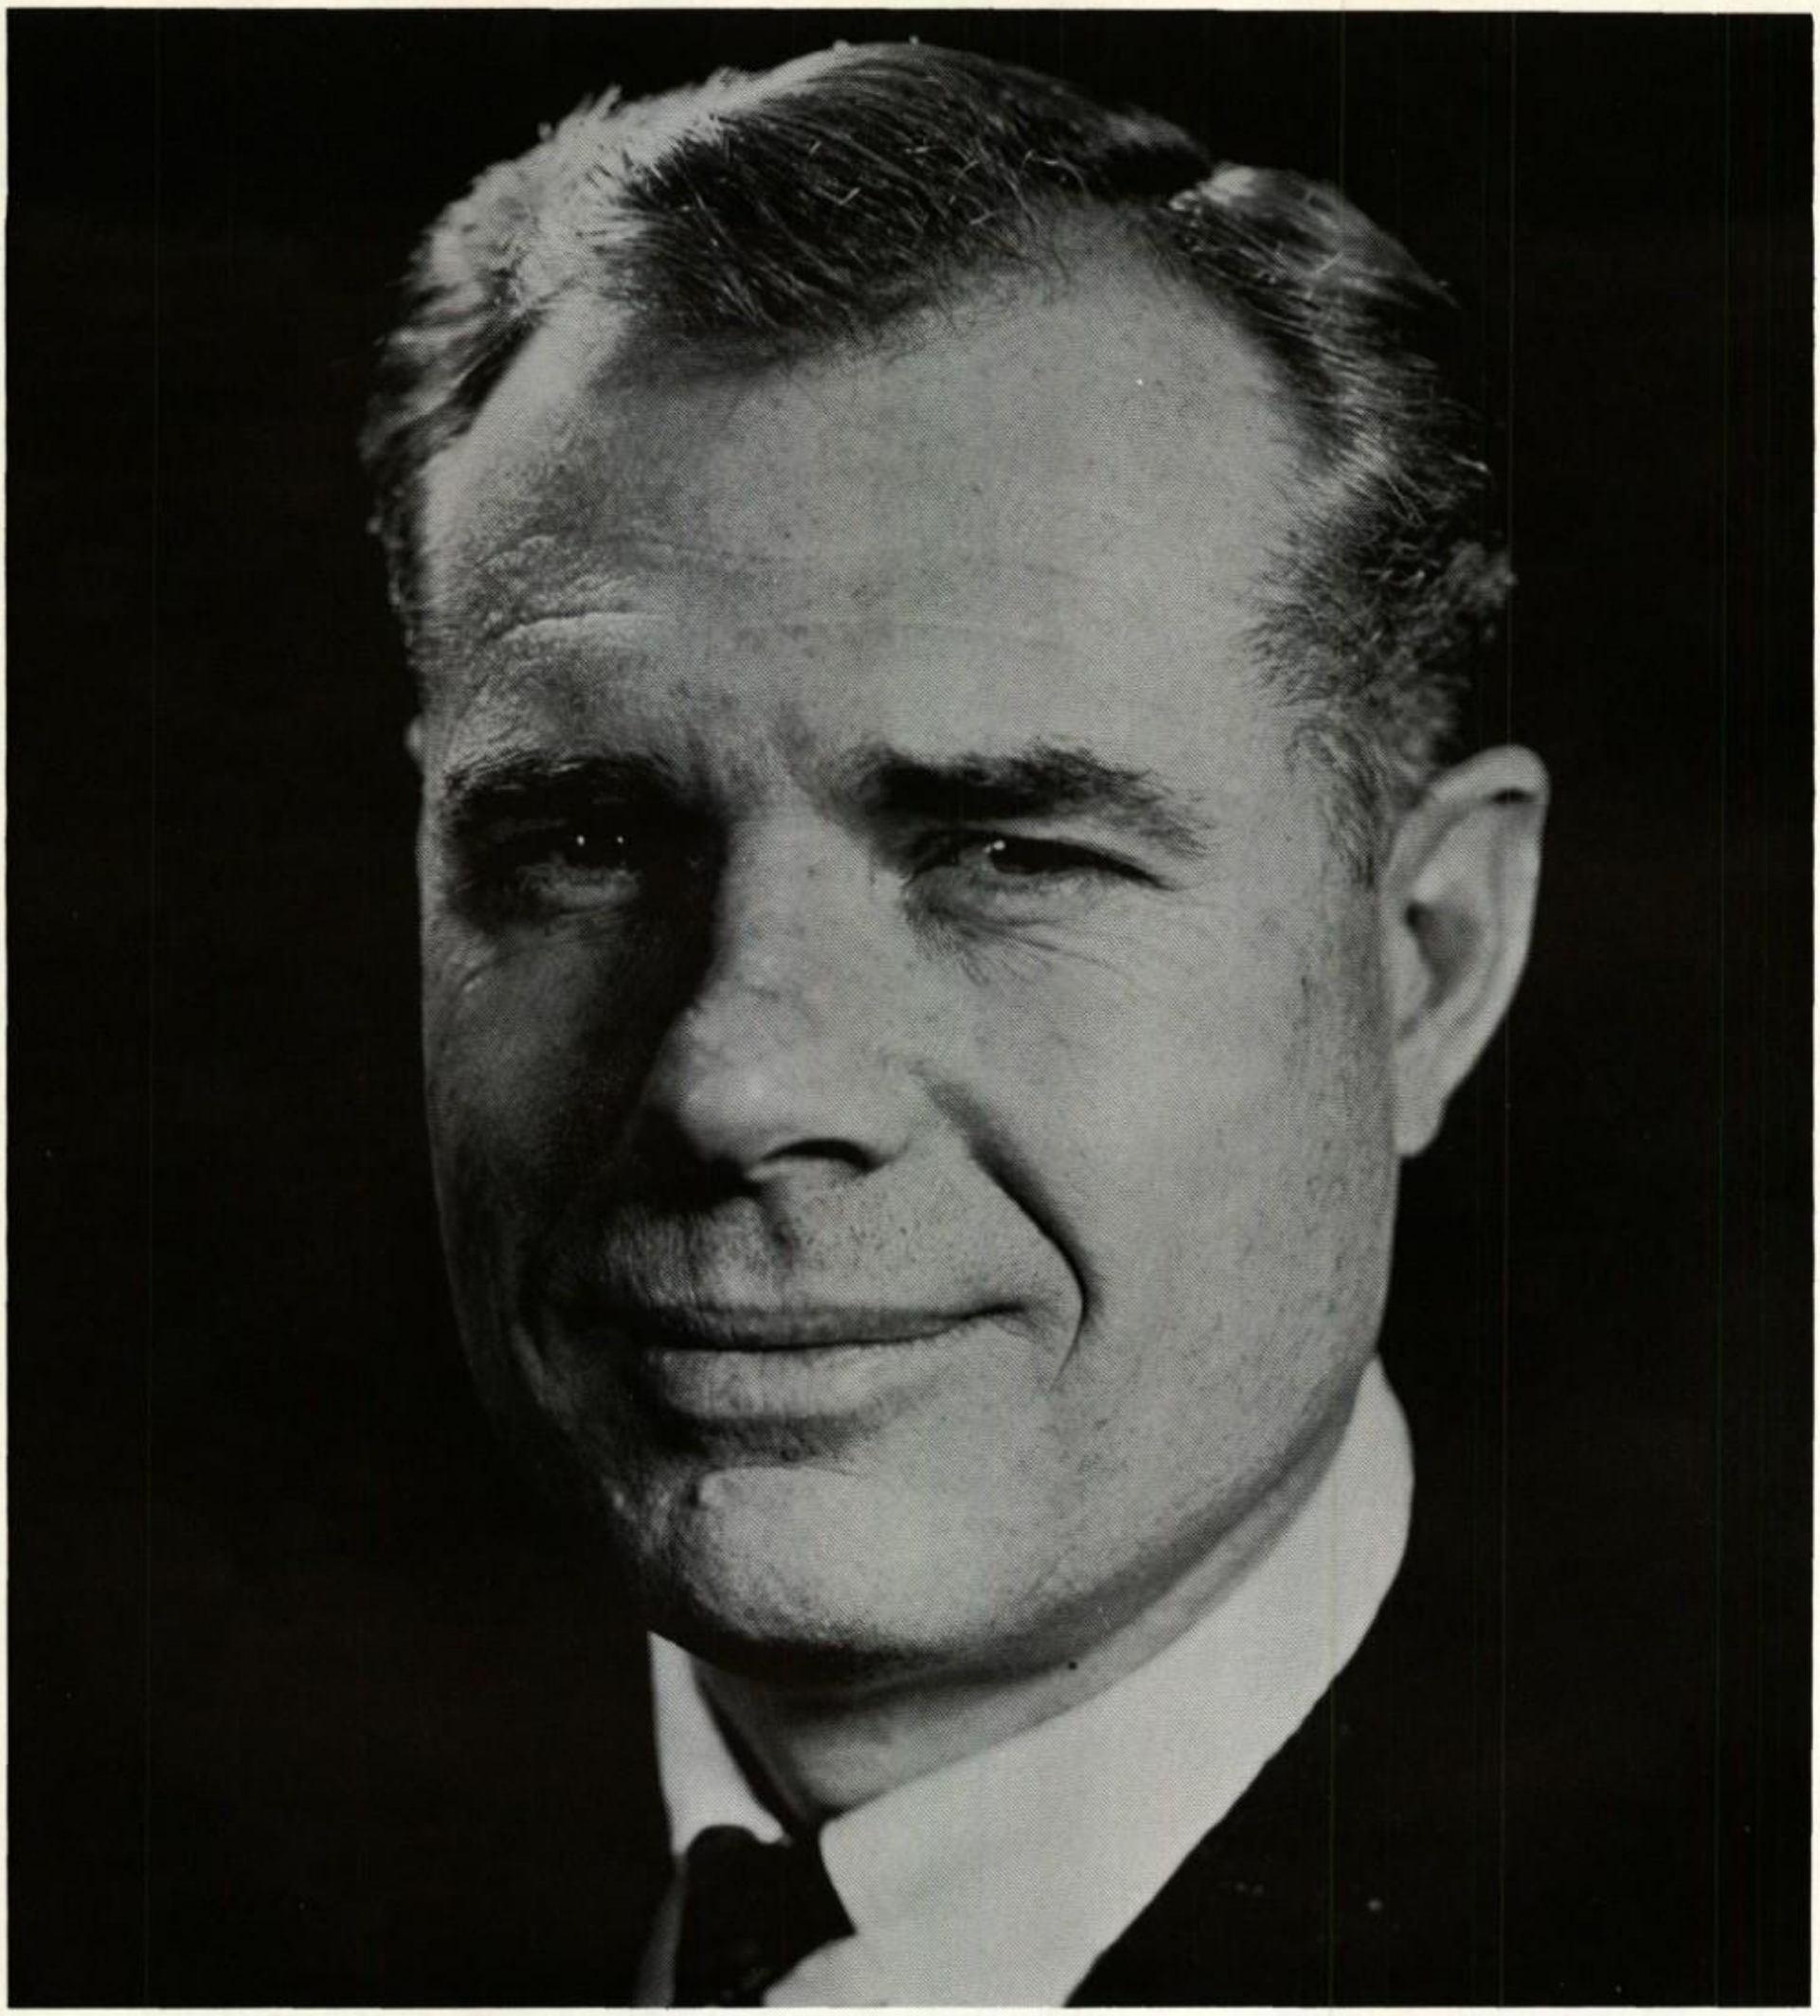
Working without pay, these devoted members deserve much credit for their thoughtful handling of district problems which has helped maintain the GUHS System's high level of achievement.

District administrators and employees handle a variety of school problems ranging from the construction of new schools to the purchase of paper clips. Headed by Superintendent Melvin Zinser, the administrative staff coordinates the operation of high schools in the Glendale Union High School District.

The coordinating efforts of the district officers have resulted in Glendale schools being rated among the top in Arizona. Constantly planning for the future, the district officers are instrumental in planning for new schools, hiring of outstanding personnel, providing a comprehensive curriculum, and operating at a minimum cost while still maintaining a high level of education.

Members of the district administrative staff are shown conferring on school problems. Standing: Mr. Robert Crouch, athletic director; Mr. Ronald Murphy, Jr., assistant for educational services; Mr. W. Fred Miller, director of educational and personnel services. Seated: Mr. Wayne Heffelfinger, business manager; Mr. Melvin Zinser, superintendent.

The district office staff is composed of (standing) Mrs. Billy Nelson, assistant bookkeeper; Mrs. Maribelle Renwick, payroll clerk; Mrs. Gwen Burns, bookkeeper; Mr. John Stenwall, purchasing agent; Mrs. Clarice Clevenger, director of food services; Mrs. Deanna Bonneville, secretary; Mrs. Carol Guthrie, secretary; (seated) Mrs. Phyllis Steele, secretary; Mrs. Alice Koerner, superintendent's secretary; Mrs. Anita Johnson, receptionist.



Mr. Berry, Former Teacher, Is Outstanding Administrator

A friendly voice over the intercom saying, "Good morning, boys and girls, this is Mr. Berry speaking," or a smiling face which appeared on all parts of the campus identified WHS's principal to all of the students. A former teacher at Washington High, Mr. William Berry advanced through the ranks to his present position.

Washington High School's place as one of the top schools in Arizona is due in great measure to its outstanding principal. The father of two daughters, Mr. Berry is constantly working to make WHS an even more outstanding school.

Friendly Administrators Serve Student Needs

Mr. Edward T. Cosper, assistant Principal for Student Activities, and Mr. John W. Irwin, assistant Principal for Student Services, were both in their eighth year at Washington High. Both men are noted for their friendly attitude and genuine interest in student affairs. Mr. Cosper attended ASU and holds an M.A. degree. Mr. Irwin attended colleges in Arizona and California and has an M.Ed. degree. Both men are married and each has three children.

Office Staff Provides Friendly Service

Happiness is a state of mind. That's why you'll always see Washington's office workers looking pleasant, regardless of the pressures placed upon them by unreasonable students, parents, and even (at times) teachers, who fail to realize how problems can build up behind those counters. Washington is fortunate, many feel, in its choice of office help who do so much with, too often, a minimum of thanks.

It Was a Year of Sadness and Joy for Seniors

It was great to be a senior. It was the climax of four years of high school and everyone in the Class of '64 got a secret thrill from being looked up to by the "lowly" underclassmen. But it was also a year of a bit of sadness—a sadness brought about by the prospect of being soon separated from old friends. Senior Day at Tucson, choosing the senior gift, and plans for graduation made the year go all too swiftly.

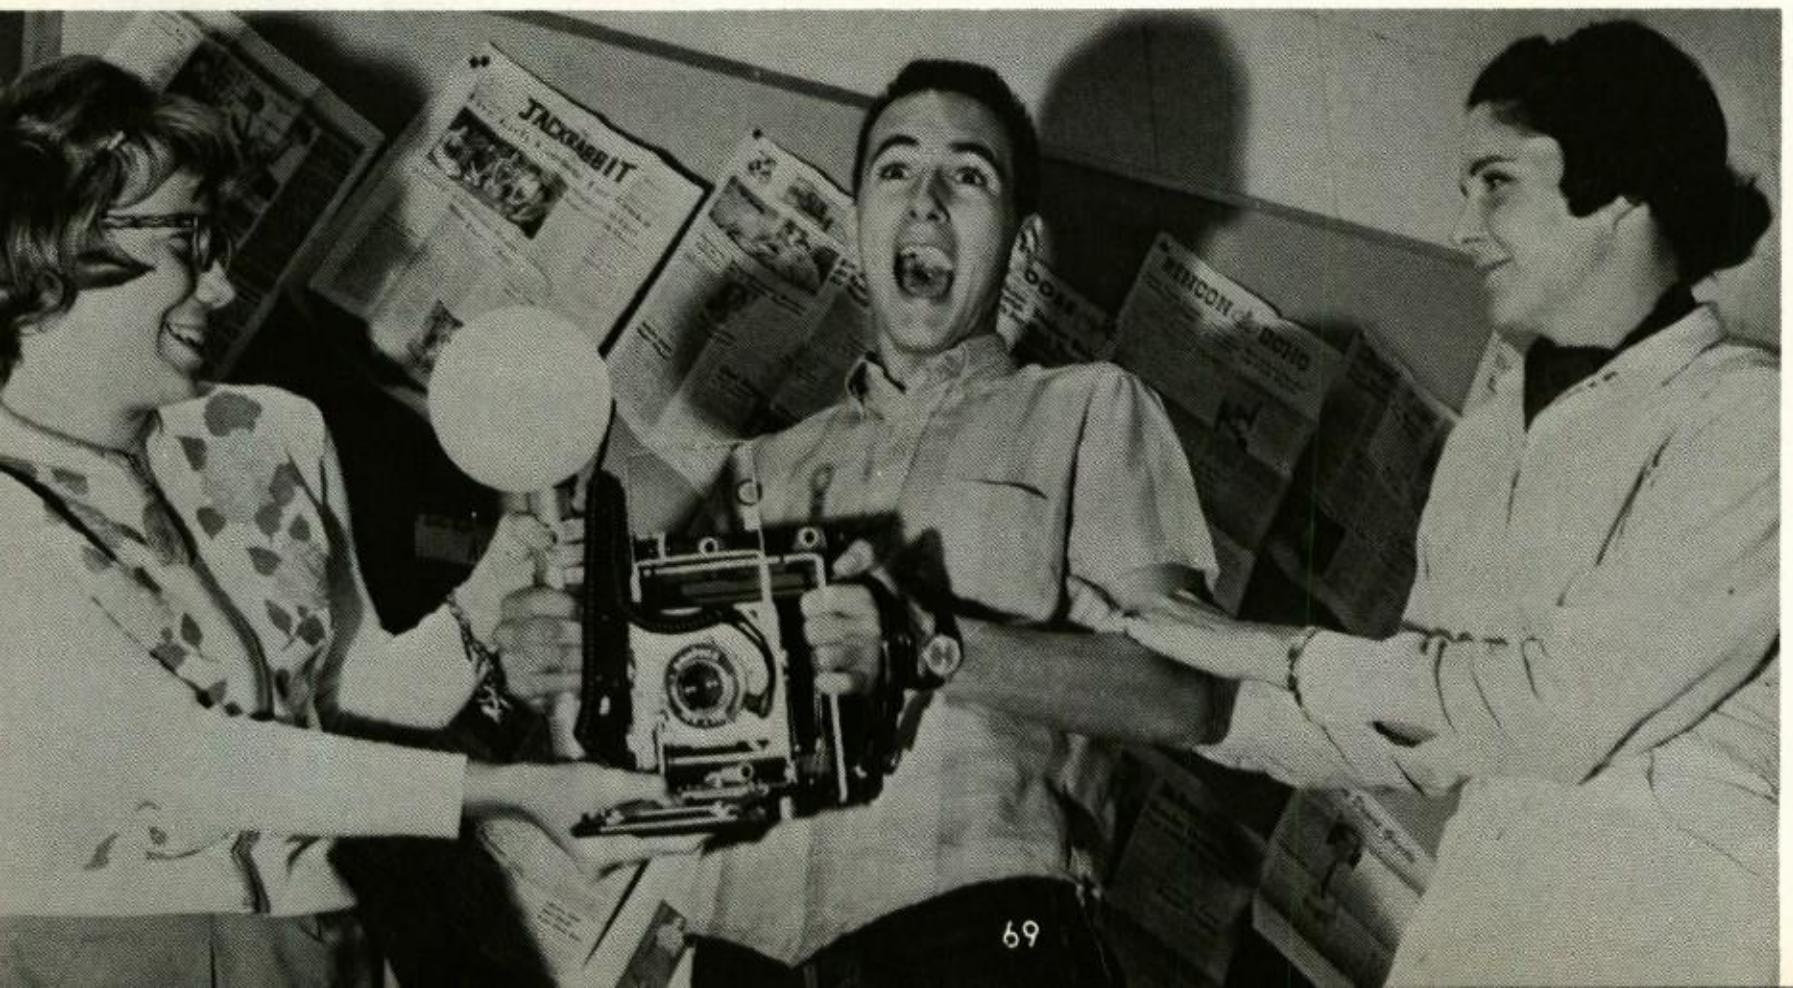
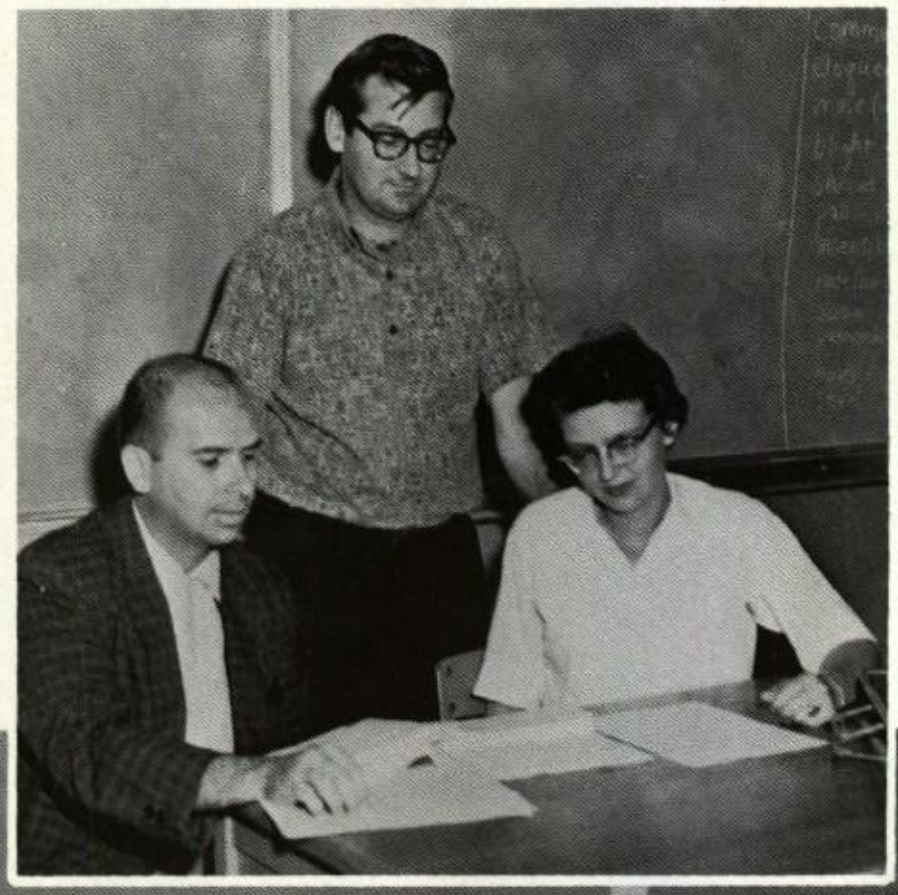
ary Ellen Anderson and Susan Burke, reporters for Phoenix papers, often had to fight for the services of Greg Cooke, hotographer.



Jumping Juniors Planned Two Big Dances

The responsibility of the Sweetheart Dance and Junior-Senior Prom rested heavily on the shoulders of the juniors. Plans for both began early but there were still hundreds of last minute details to attend to. Scholastically the juniors were kept busy with American history, English, and increasingly difficult courses in sciences and languages. Impatiently they waited for next year when they would reign as seniors.



Class sponsors are Mr. Spenser, Mr. Gallagher, and Miss Diehl.

Officers are Kathy Browner, Bobbi Dunda, John Johnstonbaugh, Mary Parker, and Malinda Elliot.

Sophomores Were on the Way Up

The sophomore class had made it through their freshman year with some happy times and distressing moments too. Together they worked out plans for the dance which they sponsored. Decorating for baccalaureate exercises was also one of their class projects.

Every sophomore found much of his time taken up with studying geography and biology. Oh, the thrill of dissecting that first pig!

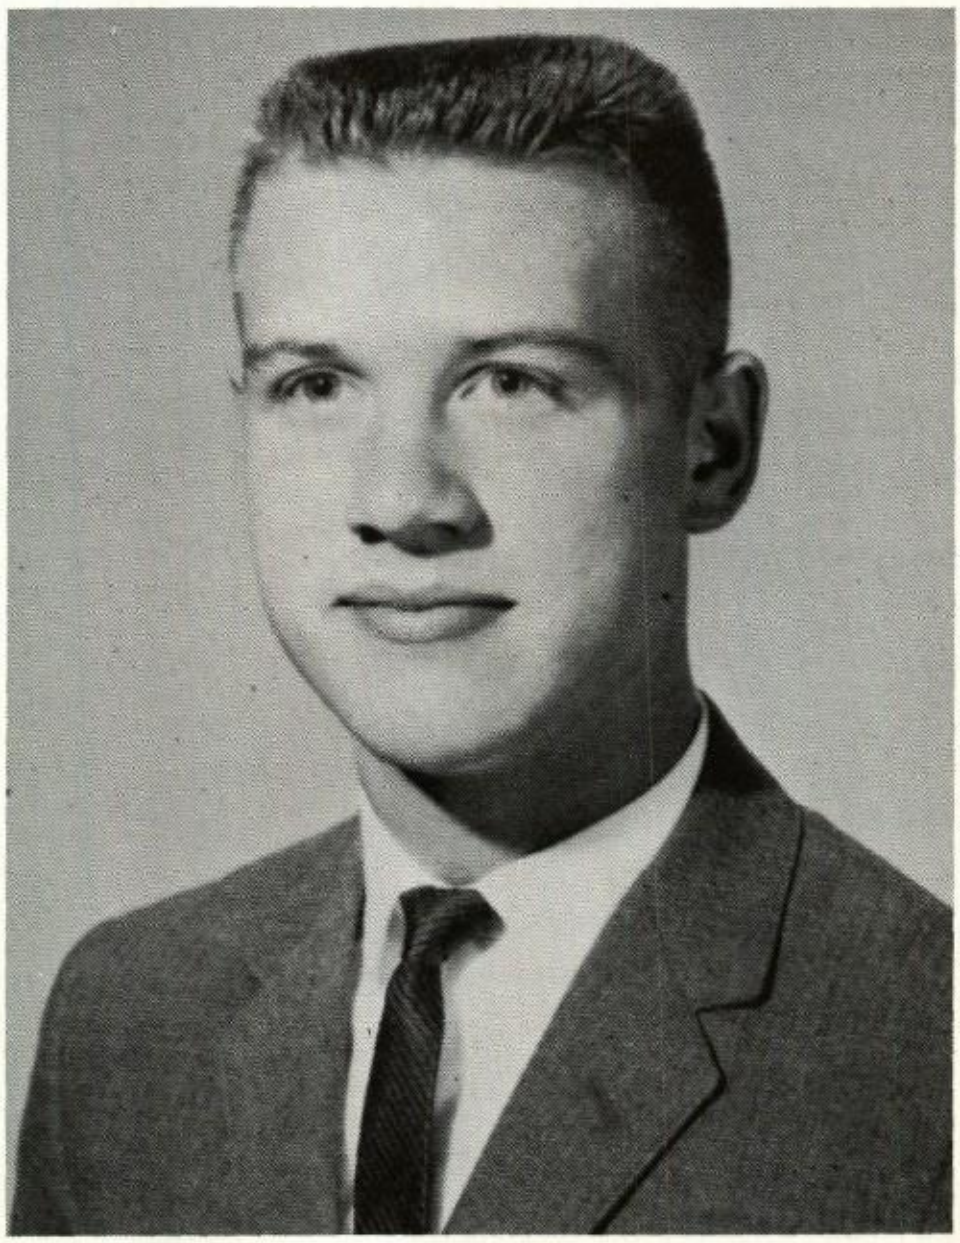
DOUG GRIMWOOD

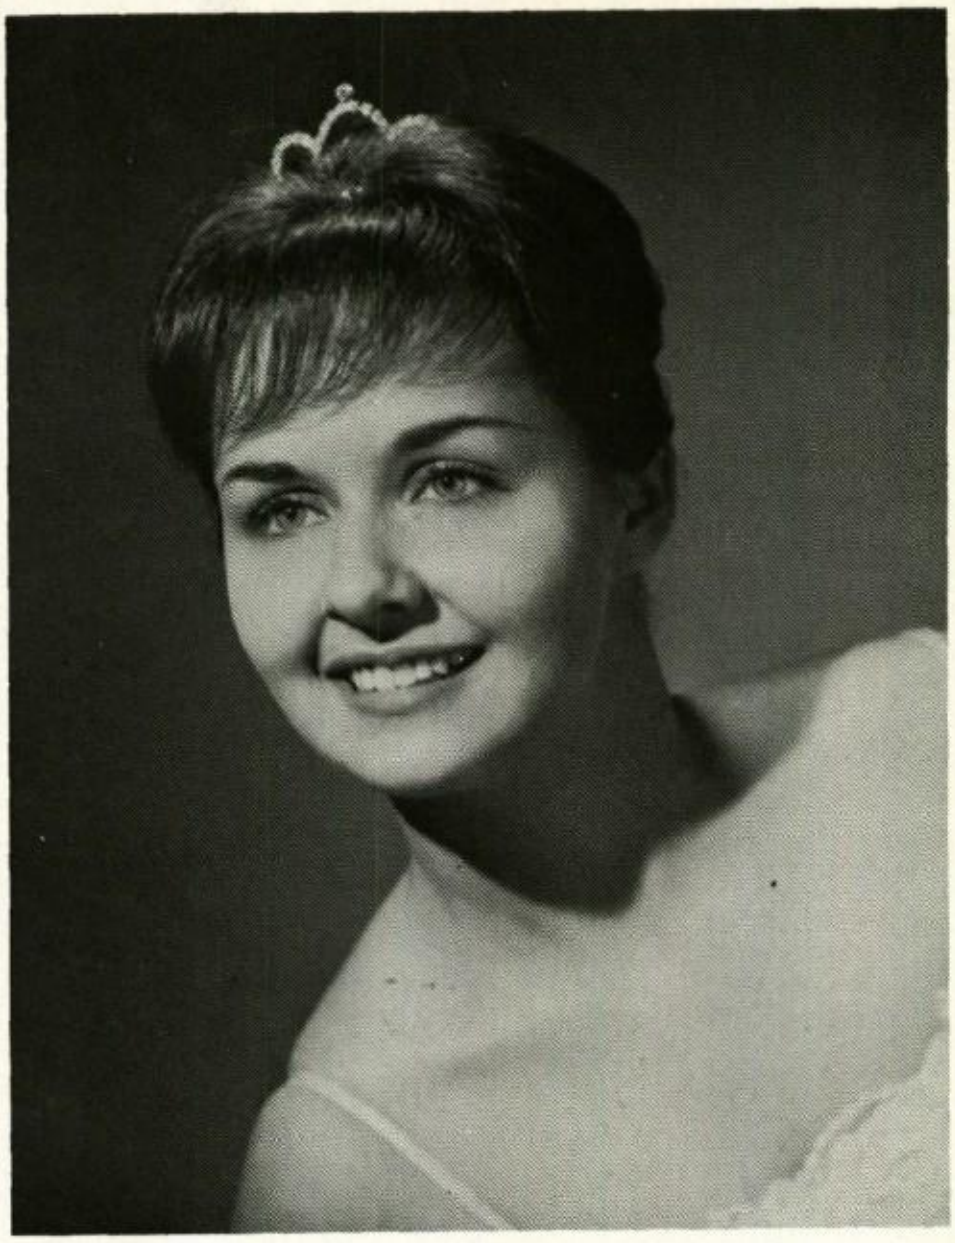
Doug Grimwood, WHS exchange student to Belgium in 1962-63, attended Het Heilige Maagd College for boys in Dendermonde, Belgium. His hosts were the de Heer Van Lokeren family. Doug took some 16 different courses during his 10-month school year, and when school was dismissed Doug hopped on a bike for a 2 months trip to Holland, Luxembourg, and various parts of Belgium. Adventure is the word Doug used to sum up his stay in Europe.

Senior Men Stand Out in Different Fields

JOHN KILLEBREW

With the election of John Killebrew, Mr. Ram Page 1964, the Journalism staff at WHS attempted to begin a new tradition on campus. Nominations were taken from the entire student body and then Ram Page staff members, along with their sponsor, voted on the senior who best fit the qualifications of high scholastic ability, athletic prowess, courtesy, a sense of humor, and the profile of a Greek god!





KITTY McCLELLAN

Washington's princess at U of A was Miss Kitty McClellan. In the final contest for Senior Day Queen, Kitty was second runner-up. She is also very busy as the Ram Page's Editor-in-Chief.

JULIANNE EGLY

Julianne Egly was elected ASU princess; however, as a result of President Kennedy's death, the ASU Senior Day was cancelled. Julianne is co-captain of the varsity cheerleading squad.

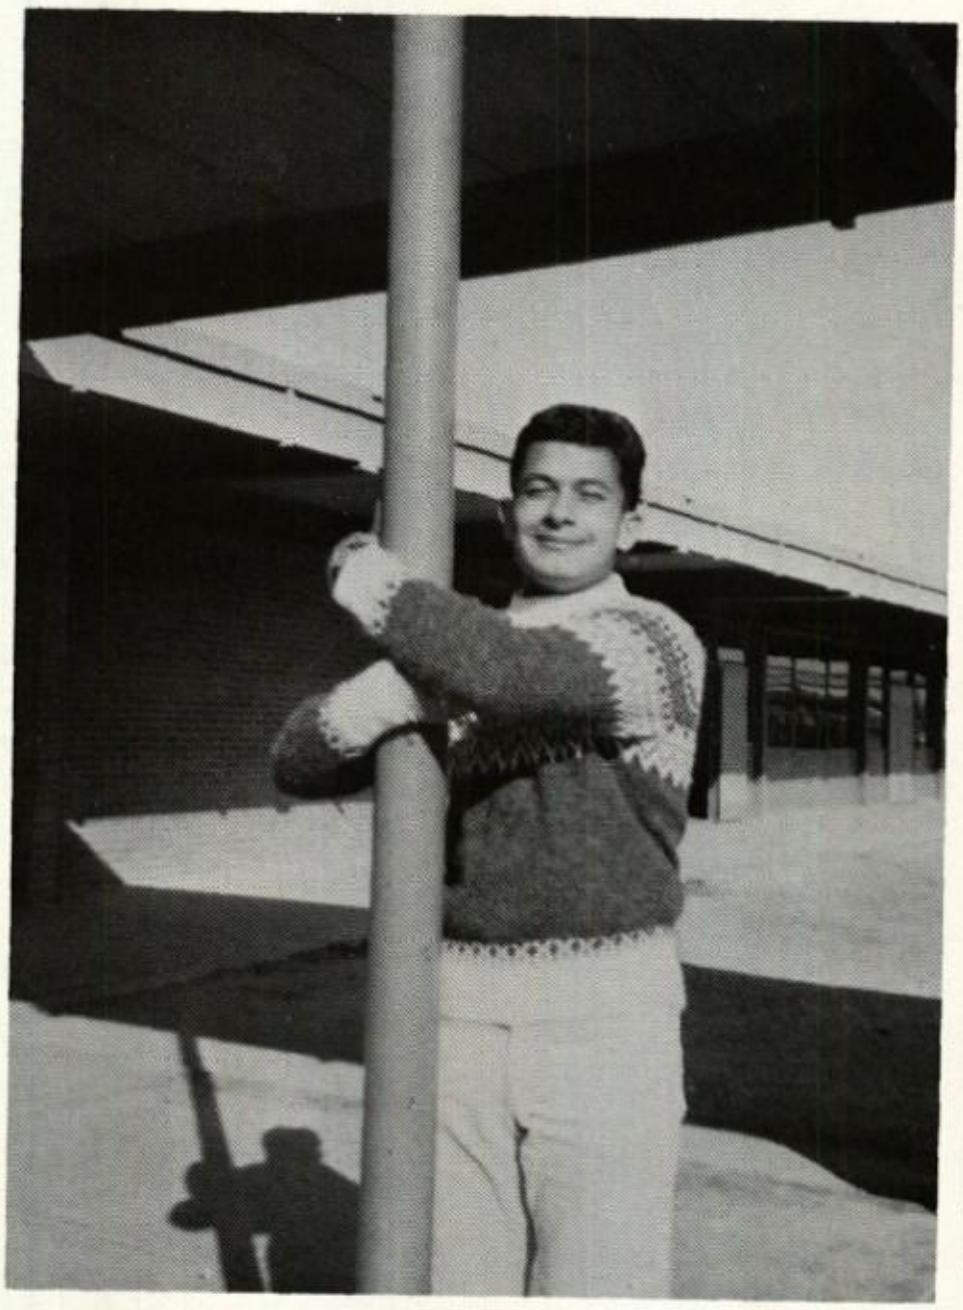
Sherif Taught Us About Egyptian Life

Rams,

I am very pleased to have been able to spend the year at Washington High. I really enjoyed making friends and I wish I could have had the opportunity and the time to meet all of you. I tried my best to meet many friends. It was a great experience for me to be with you in classes and share outside activities with you. All of these opportunities are due to the American Field Service, which enables countries to exchange ideas, and expand the good will and friendship between all citizens of the world.

I hope I will meet some of you again, someday, somewhere, sometime, so we could remember all the times at WHS. If by any chance any of you come to Cairo, please visit me. Good-bye for now.

The Egyptian,
Sherif Raafat



A native of Cairo, Egypt, Sherif Raafat came to Washington High by way of Prescott where he spent the first part of the school year.

Far Away Finland Sent Us Anneli

Dear Rams,

There are many things that I like in America, but the things I like most are the ones that are completely different from what I am accustomed to in Finland. I love to go shopping! It still is just as much fun as when I first came to America.

I had never imagined I would have an opportunity to travel. The thing that always amazes me is driving 150 miles up to Flagstaff just to see my big sister. One seldom takes long trips in Finland.

My future plans after this school year are to finish my high school studies and then begin study at Turku University in medicine. I would like to be a pediatrician and hope I shall be able to come back to America sometime, where I have had so many experiences and met so many new people.

Sincerely,
Anneli Larmo

Annei waves "Hi" to her new family and new friends. She was the AFS student from Finland.

January 1964 Senator Barry Goldwater appointed Dick Brunst United States Senate Page. Late that month Dick flew to Washington, D.C., to complete his freshman year at the Library of Congress School for Pages. Dick's job as page boy finds him filing bills, answering buzzers, and running errands for senators on the floor of congress.

Mr. Shaw Instructs Leaders and Leaders Keep Order in Classes

The officers of the different chorus groups keep order in the more detailed aspects of singing. Each of Mr. Shaw's five chorus classes has its own officers and, therefore, each has its own leaders to look up to and follow. While the officers lead the classes, Mr. Shaw, in turn, leads the officers and teaches them the correct method of leadership.

Band Rehearses Early

The band and orchestra were established with the opening of Washington High in 1954. The first director was Mr. C. Shaw. The main purpose is to promote music activities.

The members of the different instrumental groups meet often for practices to increase their perfection and usually at the unearthly hour of 8:00 a.m. With the guidance of the officers, the supervision of Mr. Bearden, and the talent of the members of the different bands, it would be nigh onto impossible for our music department not to be of good quality.

Mr. Bearden managed the instrumental department for the first time last year. He directed the band in many of their halftime shows during the football season. He has also presented a number of concerts during the year in which the Symphonic Band, Orchestra, and Advanced Band were featured.

This year Washington's photographer really had it bad. Even with Mr. Haveron's able supervision and the skill of the annual photographers, John White and Greg Cook, the photo staff still had rough. Working long hours in the dark room, frantically running here, there, and everywhere on campus, and trying to decipher the unique scrawls and hen tracks the annual staff make on the request forms and think of as writing, are a parts of the difficult job the staff had to face this year. All the pictures in this year's annual were the fine work of the photographers. When we finally met our deadline, slightly overdue, you could just see a look of peace flow again into the faces, a look that hadn't been seen in a long time.

Without the Able Help of the Photo Staff There Would be No Annual

When the editor of the section this picture is is going to finally gets it, no matter how critical the editor might be, it's bound to please either him or her. Few, if any, pictures were completely rejected and then the expertness of the photographers came in handy when they touched them up and cut them down to fit the specifications of the editors.

The most laborious step in the process of getting the picture to the editor is the development of the negative and printing of the picture.

Here Mr. Haveron, John White, and Greg Cooke are working on one of the many pictures they were required to develop.

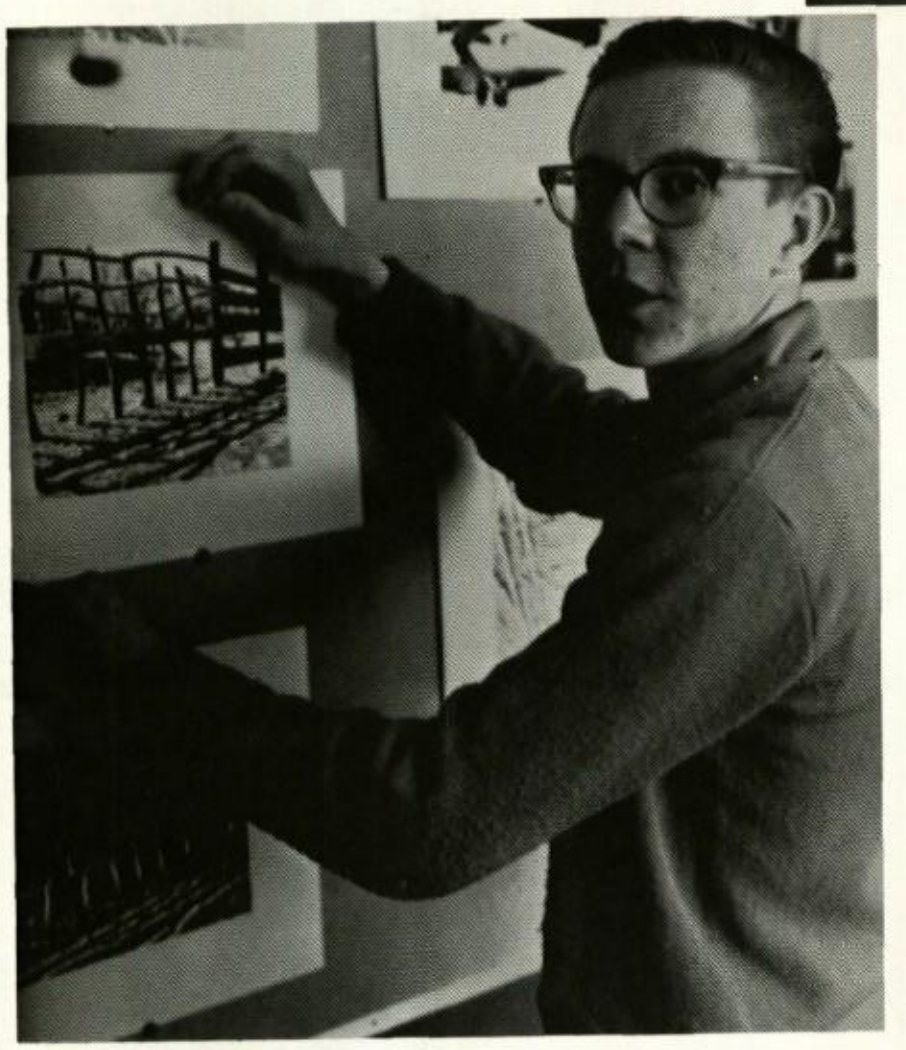
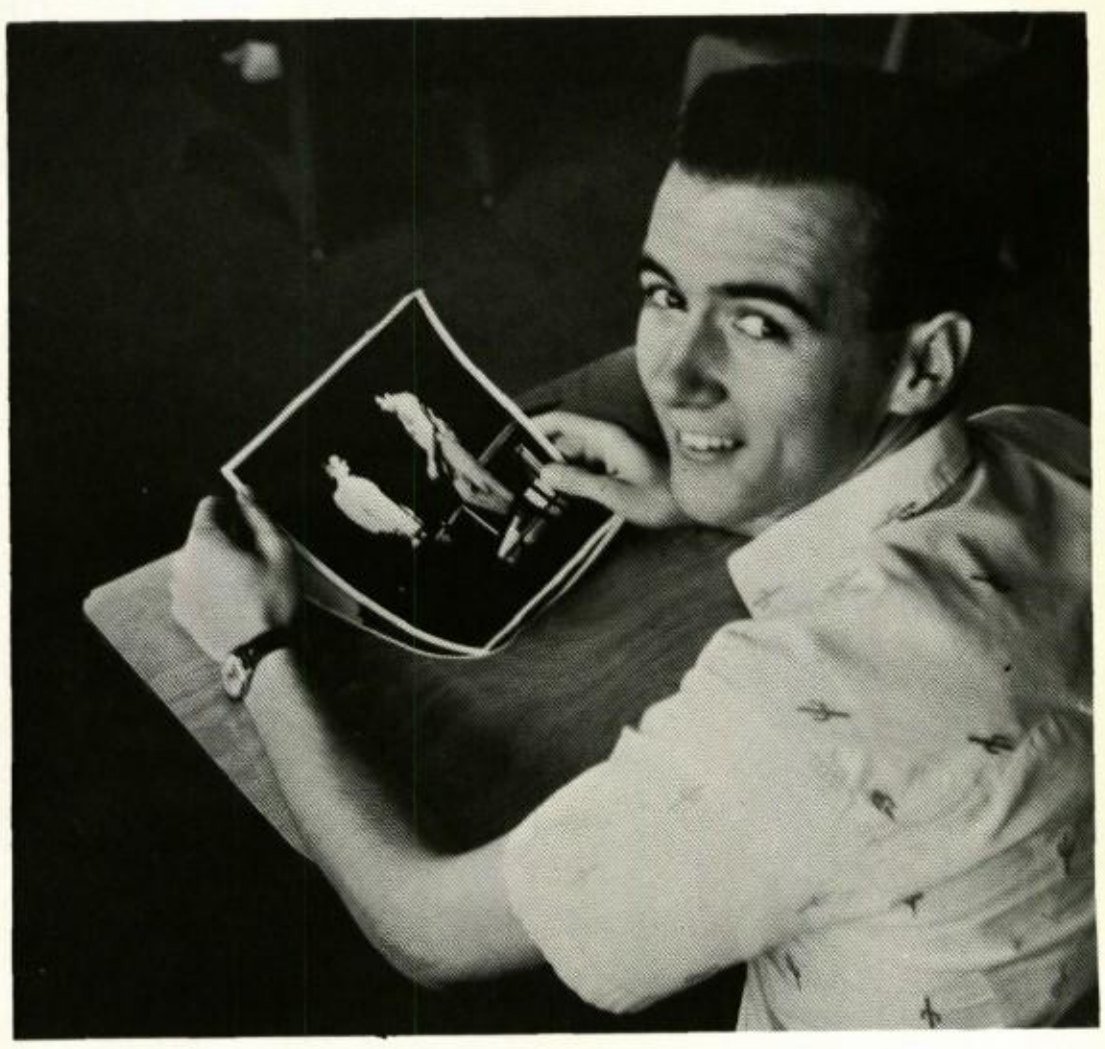
"MAN IN A BOAT" by Doug Palmquist.



John White is one of the chief annual photographers. With his help, we got the annual out on time.

Annual Photographers and Editors Work Together Throughout the Year



Greg Cooke, the other annual photographer, also works on artistic photography for contests.

Spanish Club: Largest and Most Popular Club on Campus

Spanish Club members, through speakers and movies, learn more about the Spanish people, their customs, arts, ways, and language. The club is open to any students who have taken or are taking Spanish and each year the sponsors and officers award scholarships to seniors who are planning to continue with the study of the Spanish language in college or in a school of linguistic arts. Washington's Spanish Club provides an outlet for students interested in broadening their classroom knowledge of Spain and her culture.

Club Seeks and Finds Knowledge of France and Its People

The habits of the French, their language and their culture, provide interesting and profitable studies for the members of Washington's chapter of Le Parisiens. The members have no trouble finding interesting pursuits in the culture and arts of the French and are, therefore, always busy. The knowledge they gain from these facts proves not only to be fascinating to the members now, but may, in their later lives, even be of great help and value to them in their chosen vocations.

Since 1959 French Club has been a club of extreme popularity and this is due a great deal to the help and supervision of Mrs. German.

French Club Officers; Standing: Rosemary Killen, Mrs. German, Roberta Jensen. Sitting: Vicki Norman. Not pictured, Norma Jensen.

Key Club is a chapter of Key Club International. Washington's particular club is sponsored by the Northwest Phoenix Kiwanis Club, which is made up of the leading business and professional men of the community. Its main purpose and ultimate goal is to develop leadership and character through service to the school and community. The Key Club members try to set these high standards by their own example. The members are dedicated to proving to all adults that the teenagers of Washington High are honest and trustworthy by nature. Many of the members are honored in other clubs and groups, such as National Honor Society, honor roll, awards and grants as well as scholarships. All members are respected and trusted by the people that know them.

Inkslingers, Quill and Scroll Foster Journalism Studies

Between Inkslingers and Quill and Scroll, the journalism clubs on campus, many sales were held, from pickle to derby sales. These sales raised the money needed to send some of the most distinguished journalists to the Flagstaff workshop during late summer. Other campaigns were waged for the sake of others, as the Pencils for Pedro drive. The Inkslingers are helped, through their club, to prepare for their taking over of the Ram-Page. The Quill and Scroll members, on the other hand, have reached near perfection and, of necessity, are versatile and very talented. Both clubs are under the able sponsorship of Mr. Winthrop, whose knowledge of journalism is extremely valuable to the members.

Ram Rooters: Club of School Spirit and Fun

By far the most active club on campus, the Washington High Ram Rooters, better known on campus as Pep Club, keep up school spirit throughout all of our sports seasons. The members greatly improve the morale of the student body, not only by their school-spirit, but also by their happy, cheerful attitudes. Their projects, in co-operation with the cheer and pom squads, such as at the pep rallies, greatly raise school-spirit and help to stimulate interest in all the sports.

While Pep Club keeps up school spirit, the Usherettes keep up a feeling of good spirit by alleviating dangerous and frustrating tie-ups at school events. The members of Usherettes donate their time and services to Washington at many of the school events, concerts, and programs by aiding sponsors and other clubs with the distributing and seating problems. The club is rapidly growing and is open to anyone who is interested in donating her time for a worthwhile reason.

Art Club, one of the more domestic of the clubs on campus, has a lot of talented members and this talent is nurtured by its sponsor, Mr. Salmon. The members are taught, by practical experience, the finer points of art and artistry. During the course of the year the members visit art studios and museums to get a look at art in its true and most interesting light.

Affiliated with the YMCA, the Hi-Y members at Washington set for themselves the same standards as the members of YMCA groups do. These standards compel each member to attempt to improve the conduct, character, school spirit, and basic habits of the students on campus. They are, as a whole group, quite successful and do a great deal of good along these lines. The good-will projects they have done and are doing are known to most students on campus and the members are proud to have Hi-Y as a credit after their names.

The AFS Brotherhood Club is a club which gets little publicity on campus, but which is, just the same, well-known. Its money-raising projects and campaigns for the purpose of furthering the AFS program are usually quite successful and they are, in this manner, able to keep other countries and Washington students more informed of the workings of different schools of the world. While its membership is small, its effectiveness is great and worthwhile.

Like its counterpart for boys, Hi-Y, Y-Teens strives to set high standards of living and goals for its members and the visitors to their meetings and plans for projects. One of its other functions is to set a good example for the Washington High student body to follow. They annually adopt a needy family at Christmas, and their projects, reflecting high Christian ideals include parties for handicapped children of the Valley and collecting for various charities in the Valley, such as the City of Hope. The members are dedicated to helping those that are needy through charities, drives, and campaigns.

Radio Club, a comparatively new club on campus, has a unique form of communication. Each of the members is well-educated in the rules of transmitting and receiving and often talk with other students many miles away in the interest of furthering their knowledge of the workings of communication equipment. The radio station the club members set up at WHS helps still more to further their education and satisfy their hunger for knowledge about radios.

Chess Club, sponsored by Mr. Taylor, is dedicated to the mastery of one of the most difficult games known to mankind. The meetings are not dedicated to speeches or talks, as is the case of most clubs, but to playing chess. At each meeting the members pair off and play chess. While they are playing, Mr. Taylor helps, guides, and instructs them in the techniques of chess playing. This club has a peculiar fascination and challenge to its members and keeps them mentally awake.

Their Hearts Belong to Agriculture

Future Farmers of America is an organization designed to give its members practical experience in farming techniques and agricultural knowledge that will be extremely valuable to them in their later vocations. FHA is a club dedicated to the furthering of education of Washington girls in the domestic arts. Its purpose is, as its name, Future Homemakers of America, would imply, to help its members prepare for the household and domestic tasks they will find in their everyday lives as they go out into the world as wives, homemakers, and mothers. They are instructed in such basic things as housekeeping, sewing, cooking, child care, home furnishings, and family relations. Any girl is invited to become a member, but most of the members are already taking or have taken one or more of the domestic classes taught at Washington. The meetings, usually held on Monday evenings after school, are held in either the sewing rooms or the kitchens and often consist of guest speakers, demonstrations, group discussion, basic studying and practical experience. The members, when they leave school at the end of their senior year, have more than just a great deal of newly acquired knowledge; many of them also have clothes which they have made themselves. They usually feel as if they have really accomplished something, and they're right!

The Distributive Education of America or Deca Club provides an extracurricular activity for Washington students who are interested in studying and training for their planned occupations in retail and wholesale merchandising. These classes and the on-the-job experience the senior members get under this program counts as three full credits and prepares them for their future work. These 3 credits coupled with English 7-8 and government with another subject the member would like to take makes up the schedule of the members for the duration of the school year. Under the supervision of Mrs. Jimerson, this is a very popular group for members of the business world of the future.

NHS was founded by high school principals for the purpose of recognizing students who have been outstanding in scholarship, service, character, and leadership. A student becomes a member of NHS upon recommendation of the faculty, must have a 2 average, and not more than 10 per cent of the junior class and 15 per cent of the senior class may be elected. It is, therefore, a most respected organization to be a member of and Washington can certainly be proud of its chapter of National Honor Society.

Lettermen Keep Up School Spirit and Promote Good Sportsmanship

The Lettermen Club has the difficult but rewarding task of keeping up a feeling of good sportsmanship when this feeling is most needed. They do this by setting a good example for the student body and are, therefore, some of the most looked-up-to students on campus.

Washington's paper, the Ram Page, is put out twice a month, but it's not an easy job, as any of the editors or workers shown on this page would tell you. It is only through their hard work and desire to keep the student body informed on what is happening, that we know what is happening. With the knowledge of the editors and the help of Mr. Winthrop, the sponsor, we have one of the best papers in the state.

Some pictures hold the attention of our editors, even when they're supposed to be working.

The 1964 Panorama came from dozens of picture requests hastily slid under Mr. Haveron's door or pushed into the eager hands of the annual's photographers. When the pictures were returned, agonizing hours were spent by the editors in compiling, typing, and setting up the pages of their sections. Pushed on by their superiors, the editors put their assistant editors and the others under them to work. And work they did—harder than ever before—because, throughout the year, only one thing ran through their minds—this year's annual has to be the BEST!

They may not look too busy, but they are.

Officers Run School's Largest Club — Girls' Athletic Association

The Washington High School Girls' Athletic Association, with nearly 400 members, is the largest club on campus. In this club girls are given the opportunity to earn points to get their letter sweaters. The required number of points for a letter is 160, and each week one day after school hundreds of eager girls swamp WHS's athletic facilities to gain their two points. The points soon add up, while the athletes learn everything from enjoyable softball to gymnastics, which requires lots of hard work for proficiency.

Sue Burke presides over monthly G.A.A. council meeting. At these meetings sports days and money-raising projects are planned.

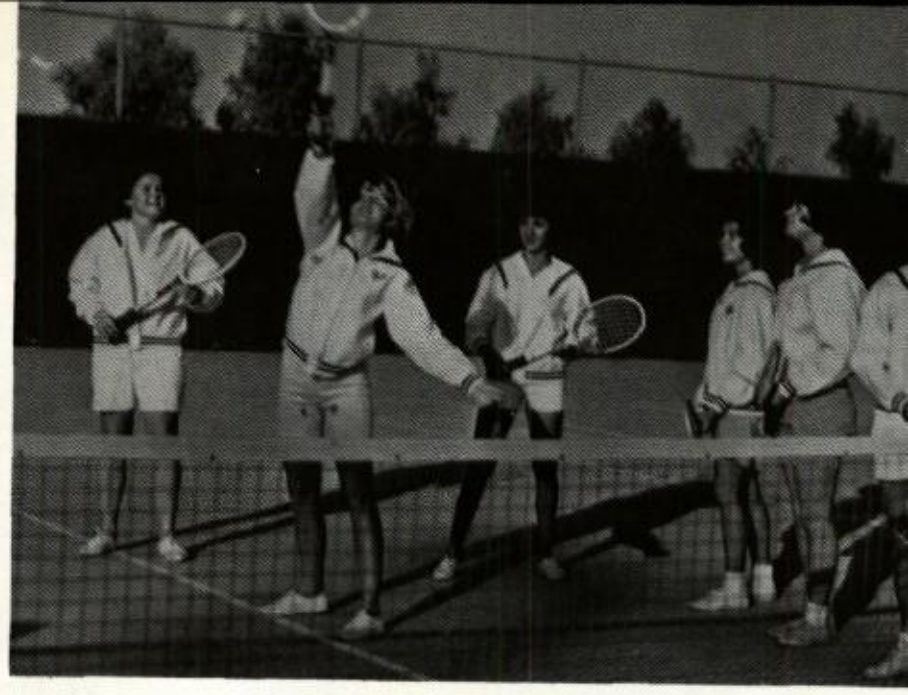
Trampolines, Horses Keep Girls Fit

The wolf, a jump on the side horse, is demonstrated by Jill Weimer, junior. The horse is one of the most popular pieces of gym equipment. Physical education students were expected to learn at least five stunts on the horse.

Frosh Girl Netters Had Perfect Season

Washington will have one of the top girls' tennis teams in the state soon if the record of the freshmen is any indication of things to come. Under the coaching of Miss Harriet Leeke, the girls compiled a 7-0 record against such schools as South Mountain and Cortez.



Members of the undefeated (7-0) freshman girls' tennis team are Sallie Nelson, Ann Tolo, Karen Rolnick, Joy Polishuk, Terry Colford, and Gayla Ong.

The Word Is 'Fore When Girl Golfers Take to the Fairway

Junior Jo Brown prepares to whack the ball as Linda George, also a junior, checks for people on the "golf course," Washington's campus.

Each week Miss Harriet Leeke's golf enthusiasts meet on various days to practice the game. After the girls have become sufficiently skillful, they go to different golf courses around the Valley and compete against one another.

"Here we go again!" Jo Brown and Linda George head for another hour's practice on a Monday afternoon.

Speedaway is a game little understood by most boys and even less by most girls. It was invented in 1921 by a woman seeking a rough and tumble game for the weaker sex. And that it is! The ball is kicked up and down the field and, hopefully, between two goal posts as in football. Here we see sophomores in Miss Lois Sauer's second hour Physical Education class clamoring around the ball as they attempt to kick it up the field.

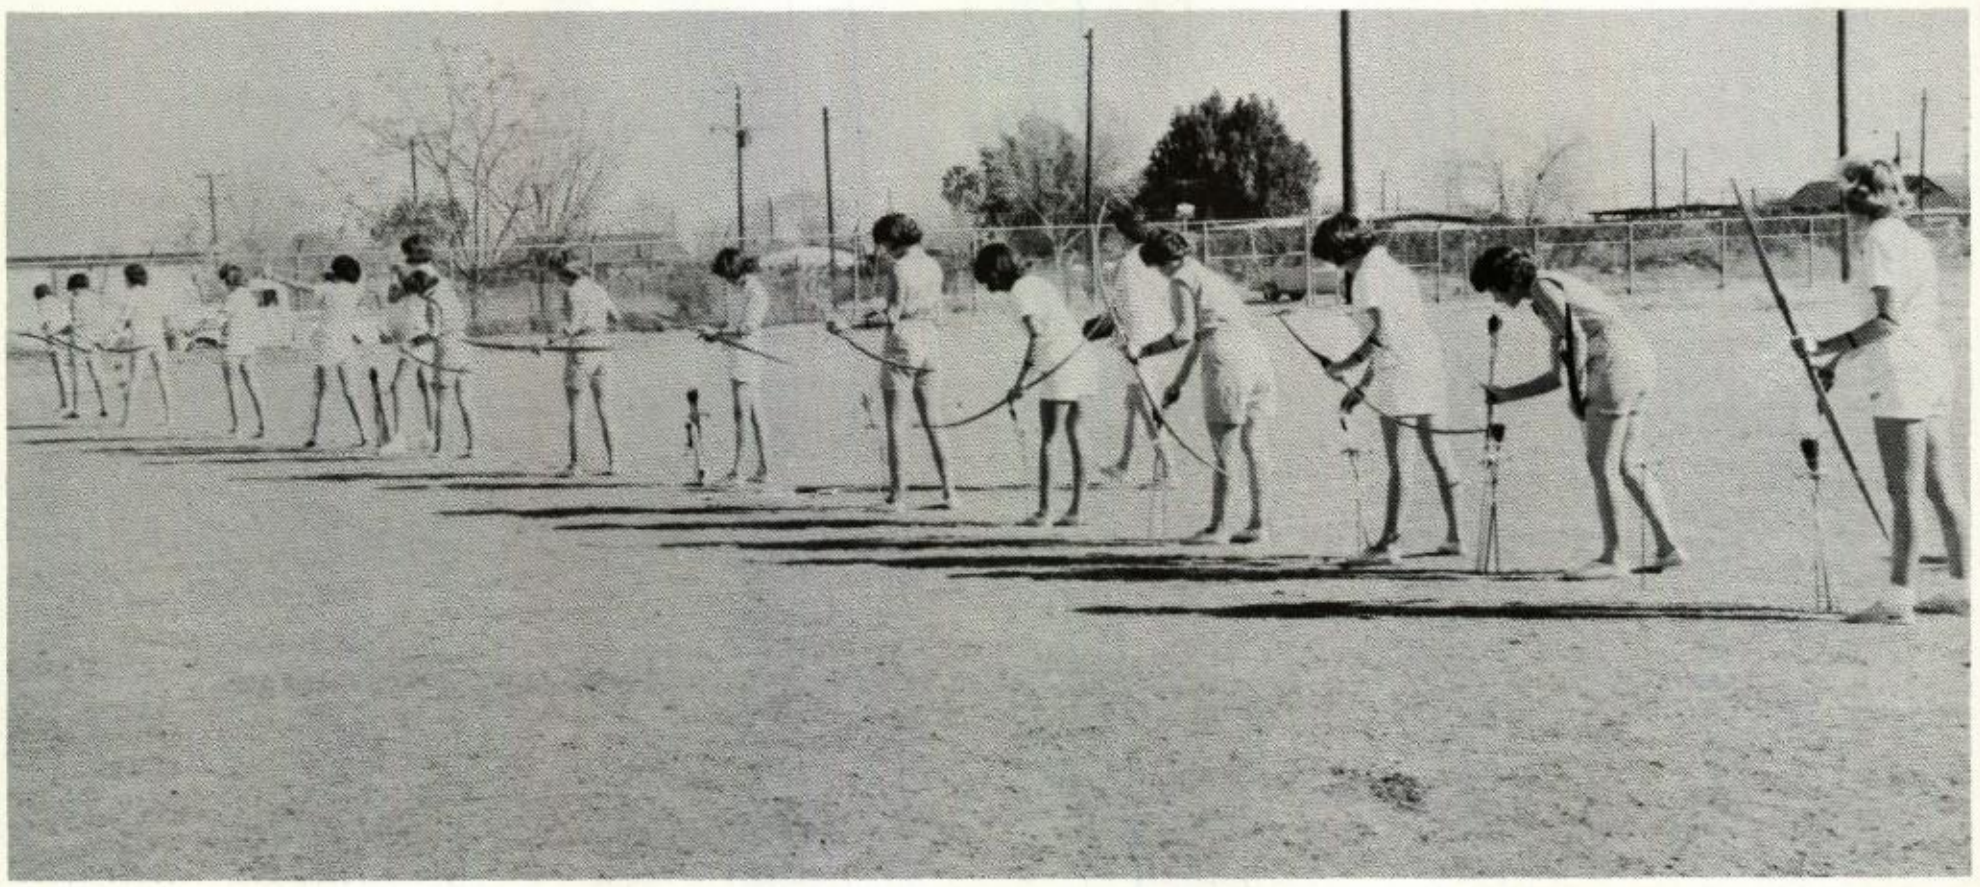
Speedaway Called "Combination of All Other Games"

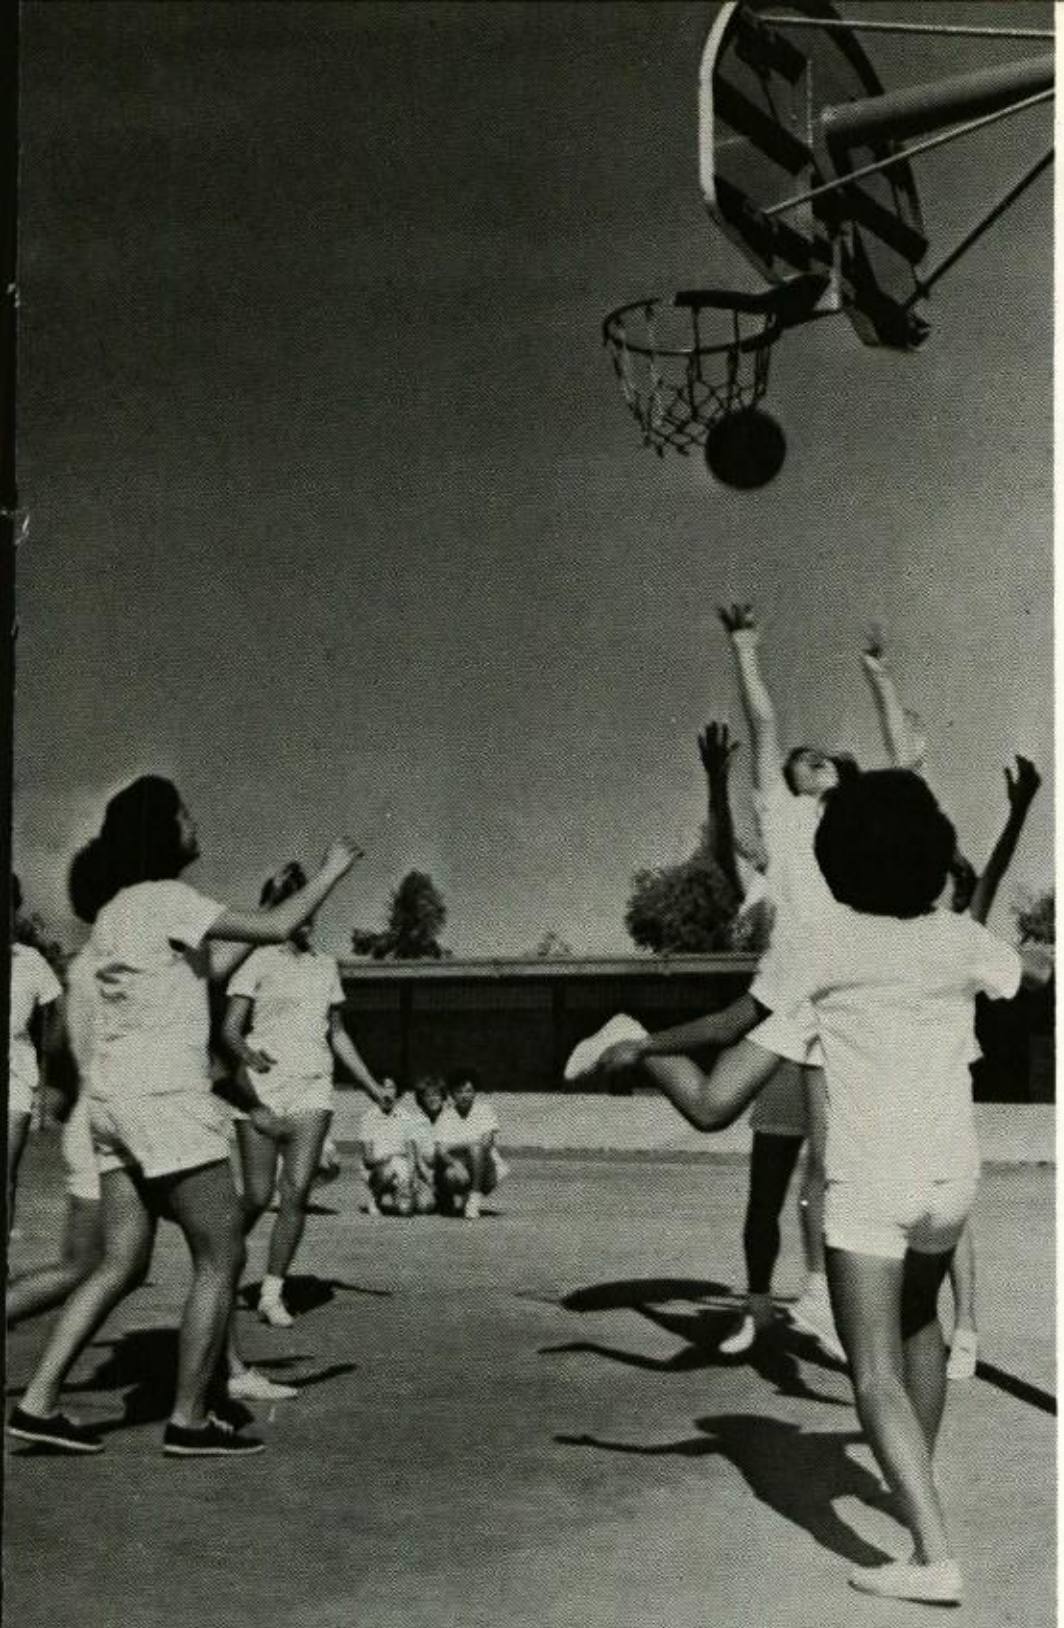
The speedaway rules say that the ball may not be picked up with the hands; in this picture we see the girls doing their best to advance it the only other way —by foot.

Girl Archers Try for Bull's Eyes

Senior Geri Higgins, who is "one of my best archers," according to Mrs. Maurene Hufford, shows the proper stance for an archer.

Below: Mrs. Maureen Hufford, Archery Club sponsor, watches the girls as they prepare to let the arrows fly. The girls compete against each other on Tuesdays and Thursdays, recording scores by accuracy of their shots. The girls prepare to participate in state archery competition with the high scorers going to the tournament.





Sophomore students in Miss Lois Sauer's second hour physical education class engage in a lively game of basketball while several students observe.

Girls' Basketball Teams Consist of Six Players

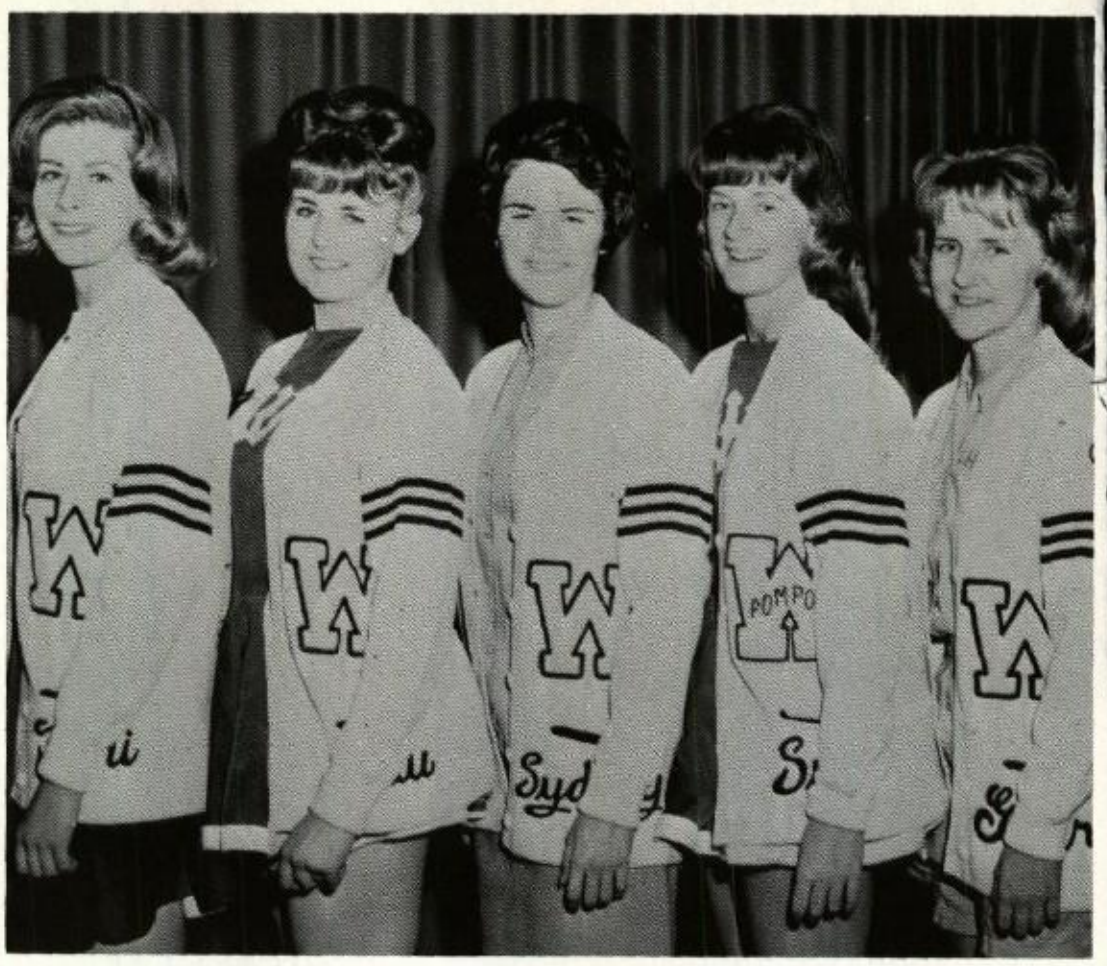
To boys, girls' basketball seems very strange. Girls may not cross the halfway mark in the court and there are six girls on each team.

Despite the differences, girls in physical education classes at WHS enjoy the games and they find that it takes a great deal of skill to be a really good player.

Basketball manager Kathy Browner demonstrates shooting technique to sophomore girls.

Lettergirls Must Earn Points

The purpose of Lettergirls is to encourage female participation in athletics. Girls earn points toward letters by participating in events, attending play days, and dancing for an evening concert. Mrs. Maurene Hufford is sponsor of the Lettergirls. Initiations featuring hats, aprons, and menial tasks are a part of Lettergirl initiation.



Lettergirl officers are Suzi Browner, publicity chairman; Neela Perry, vice-president; Sydney Siepel, president; Sue McIntyre, treasurer; Gerri Higgins, secretary.

Ram Finish 1963 Season With 4-5 Record

The 1963 season of football proved to be somewhat disappointing for the Ram eleven. Washington finished the season with a 4-5-0 record. Injuries plagued the Ram warriors throughout the year, claiming almost half of the starting team.

South Mountain's Rebels started their victory chain with a 34-7 win. In the second game the Rams bounced back to defeat the Cortez Colts and retain the Ram-Colt trophy.

WHS caught a 26-7 chill on the frozen Flagstaff field but undaunted the Rams gave Sunnyslope a 39-0 licking the following week. Coach Carl Ulichny's Rams were unsaddled by the Brophy Broncs by a score of 19-6.

The slippery ball on a rainy night seemed to favor the West High Thunderbirds as they trounced Washington 22-7.

Putting a damper on an otherwise gala Homecoming, the Glendale Cardinals beat the Rams 35-6 Halloween night.

November 8 Washington ran over Prescott's Badgers by a lopsided score of 57-0. WHS collected the last victory of the season by out-jousting the Knights of St. Mary's in a tilt Nov. 15.

Because of the assassination of President Kennedy, the last game of the season against Scottsdale was cancelled.

*Christmas Tournament

The Ram basketball team finished sixth in the Class AA Division II Conference, having a 5-9 record in conference play. Washington scored a 2-1 record in non-conference games.

Highlight of the season for the Ram quintet was the championship in the Christmas Tournament at Grand Canyon College. This was the first year as head coach for Mr. Kent Briggs.

Frosh Teams Learn by Playing ached by Mr. Dale Goodwin, these boys made up the freshman "White" team. Row 1: M. Gregory, Widman, B. Heye, T. Fisher, T. Russell, D. Jone, J. Kerr. Row 2: T. Pickett, T. Becktel, J. Herman, T. urphy, J. Talakson, N. Rabe, I. Conner, Coach Goodwin.

In order to give experience to more boys, the freshmen are divided into two teams, the "White" and the "Purple." The teams, of nearly equal ability, provide competition for themselves and for freshman teams from other schools.

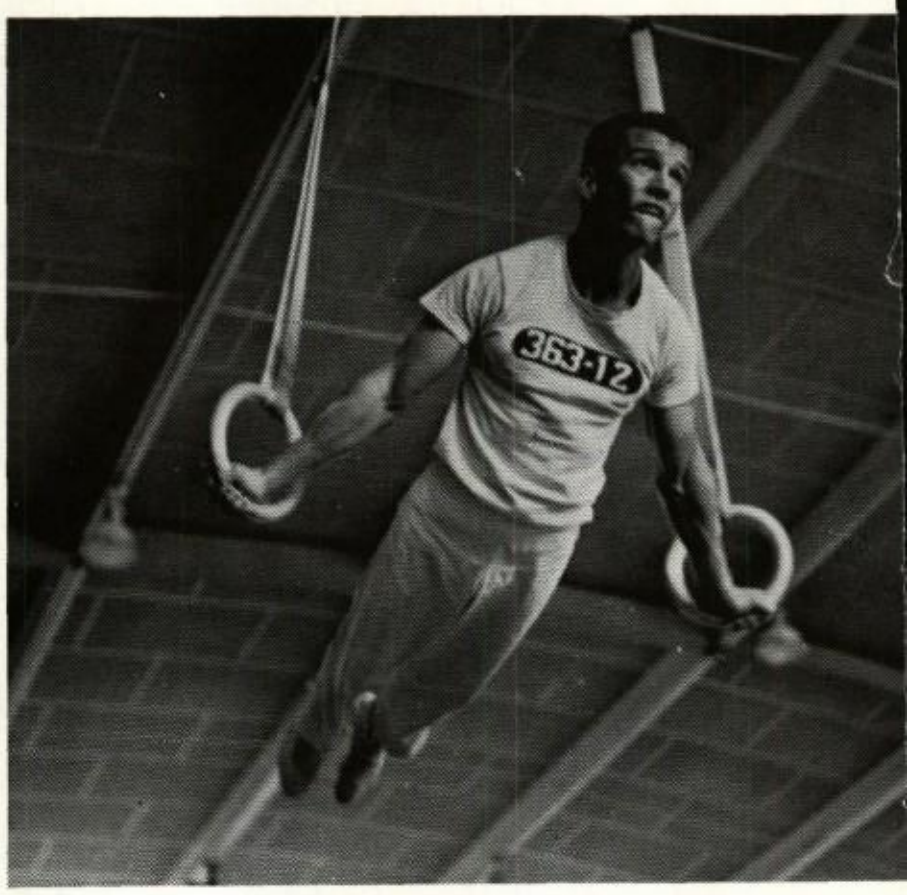
Gymnastics Requires Strength, Skill

Participants in gymnastics events are judged on their form in performing certain prescribed routines. This sport combines strength and grade and is a favorite with spectators. Coached by Mr. Blushkofski, the boys spend hours on parallel bars, rings and horses.



The still rings are one of the most difficult of the tumbling a paratus. Joel Pearson is shown performing.

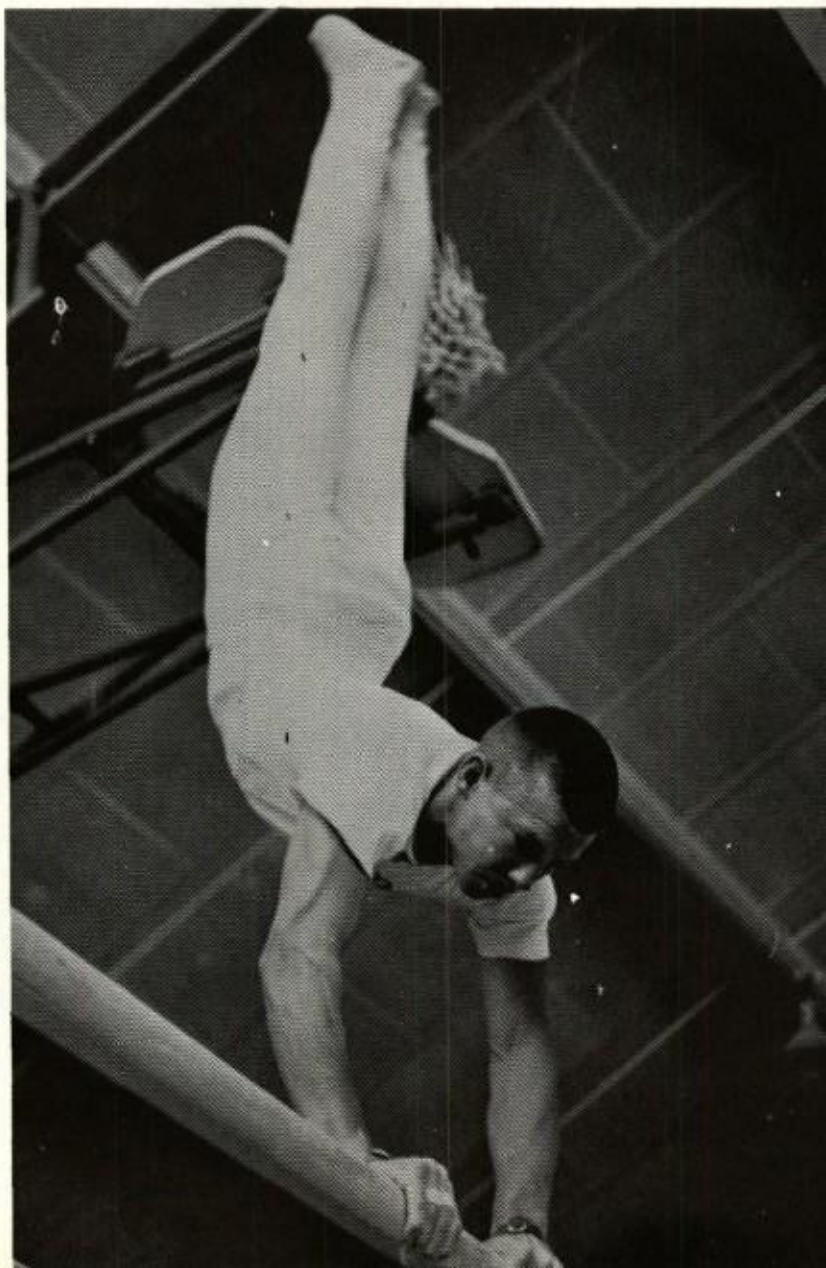
Rich Barker shows grace and strength as he executes a routine on the side horse.



Jeff Schmidt performs a hand stand on the parallel bars.

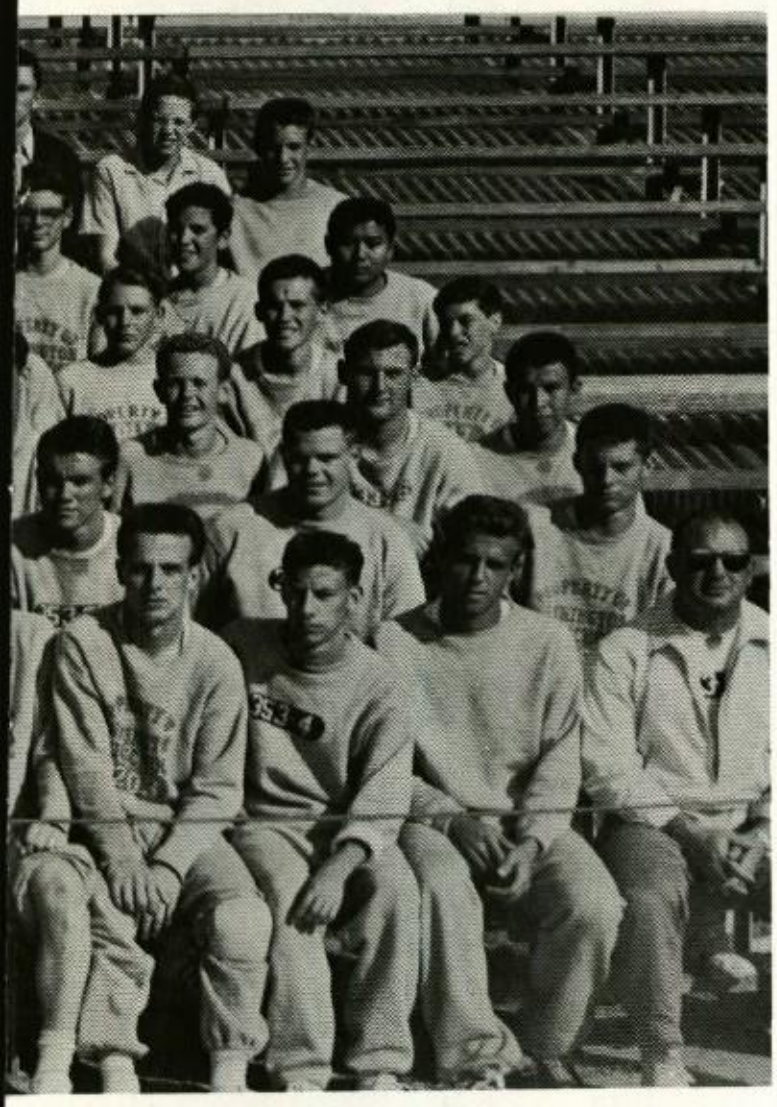
Mile Relay Added to Track Events



The Rams opened the 1964 track season with a triangular meet with Prescott and Brophy. Coming out on top, the Rams scored 107 to Prescott's 21 and Brophy's 17.

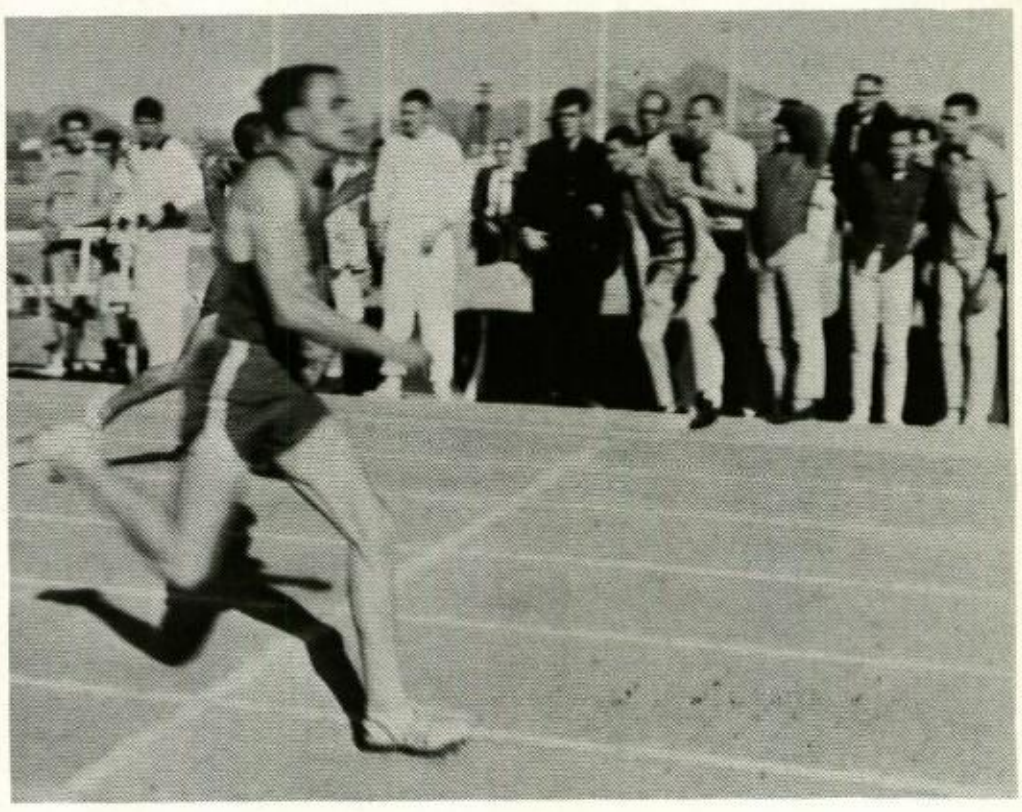
Cortez went down to defeat in the Rams' second encounter.

Outstanding performers on the track team are Rick Heisler and Sam Grimes in high hurdles; Bruce Frankie and Ric Beltran, 100 yd. dash; Ron Stern and Scott Giddings, mile; Dave Bonner, Marvin Manross, 440; Bruce Frankie, Ric Beltran, John Lewis, Dave Bonner, 880 relay; Dan Malone, Bob Roether, pole vault; Dan Francis, Sam Grimes, high jump.

Also Rick Heisler, Ric Beltran, 180 yd. low hurdles; Ric Beltran, John Lewis, broadjump; Bruce Frankie, Ric Beltran, 220; John Stevens, Mike Fields, shot put; Rick Whitaker, Gary O'Connell, discus; Barry Lunn, Jim Young, half mile; John Lewis, Ron Stern, Marvin Manross, Dave Bonner, mile relay.

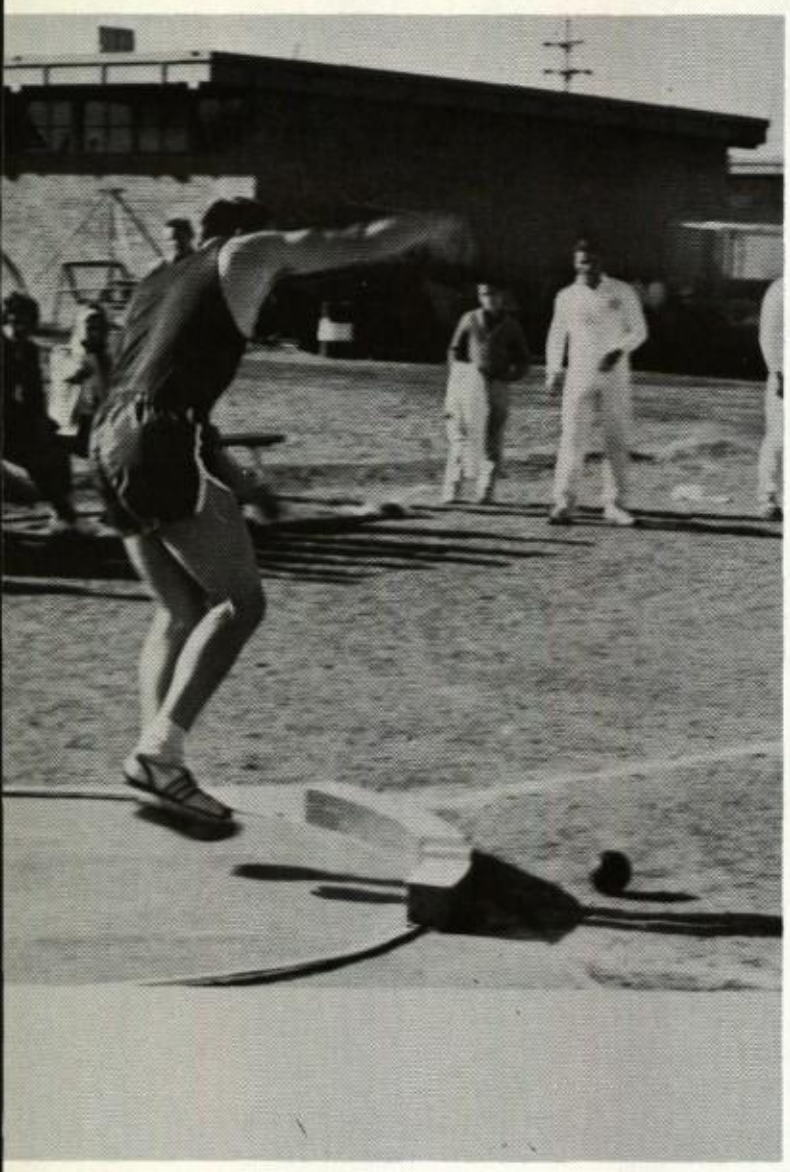
The mile relay is the latest addition to the events for Division II competition.

In the Glendale Invitational where approximately 300 athletes from all over Arizona participated, WHS took an unofficial second place. The Rams took first place in three events.



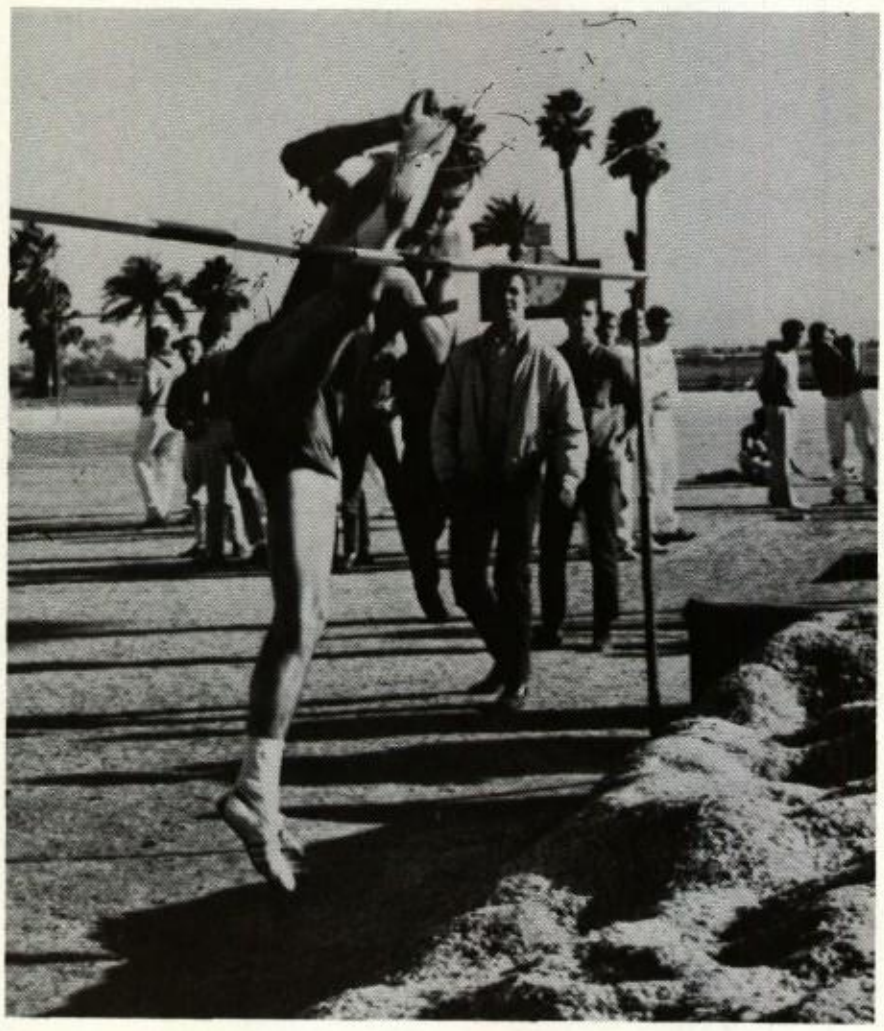
Bruce Frankie flashes by in a blur of color.

Track Men Excel in Individual and Group Performances

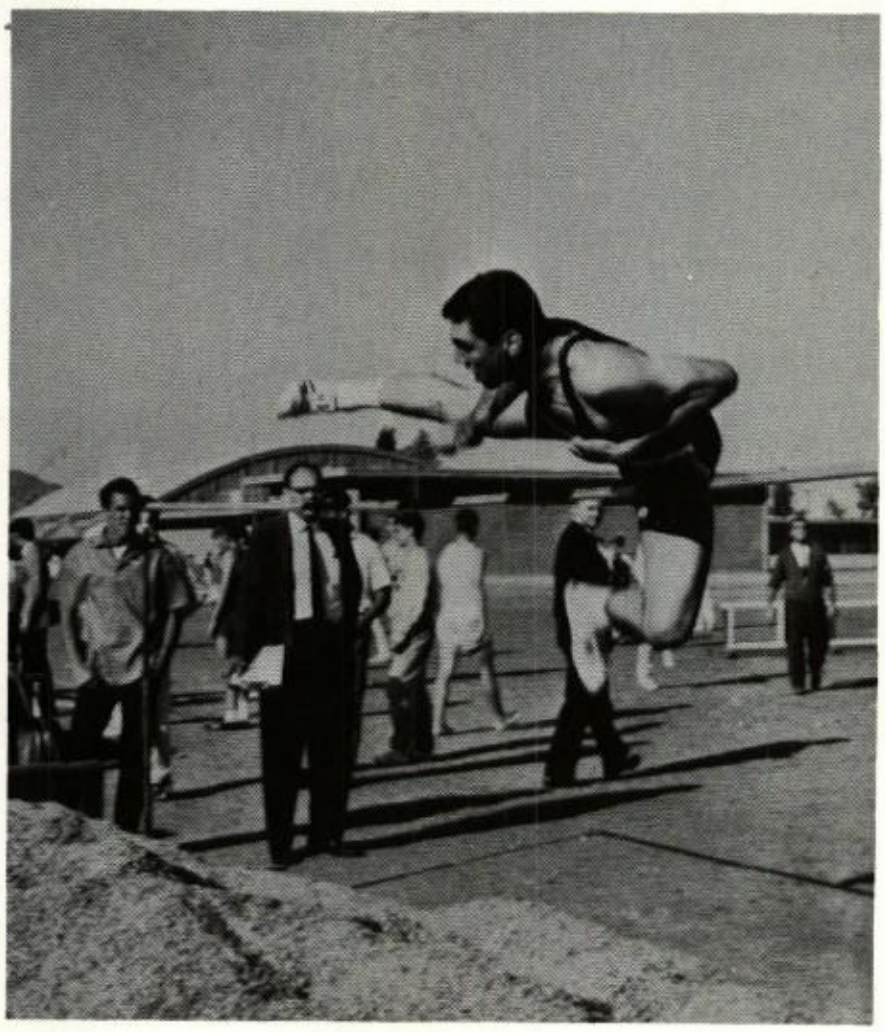


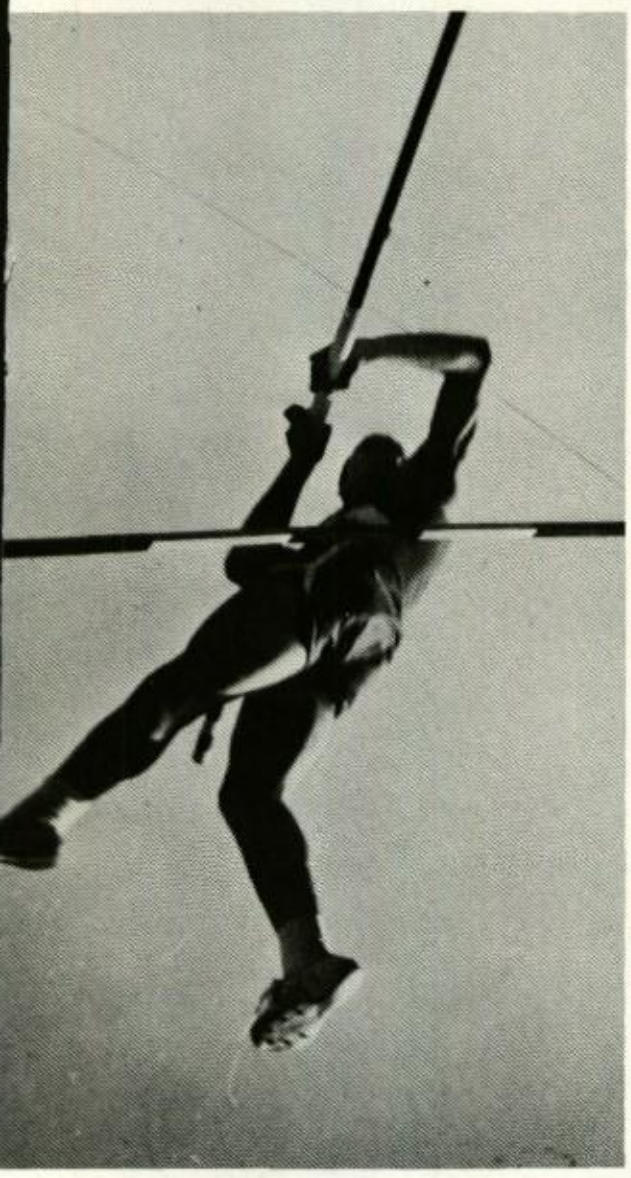
John Stevens shows the form that made him tops in several meets.

Sam Grimes grimaces as he strains for the high jump.



Here Grimes clips the bar in an effort to attain a greater height in the high jump.





Dan Malone goes over the bar.

Won't Make It So

Accomplishment takes planning and the best time to start is now.

As you go on in life, you'll find again and again that a good education, wisely used, has more to do with the realization of your plans and dreams than Lady Luck ever does.

It is the same with the energy business. We have to plan far ahead to be certain you will always have all the electric and natural gas energy you need for all the work you wish to do.
